If Mama Ain't Happy...

We have all heard the saying, "If Mama ain't happy, ain't nobody happy." It's not uncommon for mothers to wear many, but today's parents have many different roles. They are providers, caregivers, chef, chauffeur, coach, cheerleader, referee, teacher, nurse, maid, planner, and personal shopper to name a few. Along with the many responsibilities that they hold, the family is counting, and relying, on them to come through for "the team."

What happens when those with this dedication and self sacrifice become injured, or have pain that slows them down? They have so much to give, but need to take care of themselves, so that they can continue to give their best to the ones they love.

Does pain cause you, or someone you know, to be uncomfortable, irritable, slow you down, or worse yet – prevent you from doing those things that you love to do? If so, perhaps we can help get you get back in the game again.

As women, we understand the health concerns you face. As moms, we know that your health concerns reach beyond yourself and to your family. As chiropractors, our goal is to help you regain you health so you can get your life back.

God Bless,

Dr. Heather & Dr. Laura
