Fire damages home on West State Street

ROCKFORD — The Rockford Fire Department responded to a house fire in the 1800 block of West State Street in the early morning hours. Engine 6 arrived first to find the only occupant of this house outside and uninjured.

The fire was in the kitchen and it extended to the attic. Fire crews operated on both floors, and on the outside, of this two-story house.

A second alarm was called for manpower as this stubborn fire found its way behind a knee wall in the attic and began to run the length of the house.

Fire crews operated for three hours at this location and were able to save most of this house. The fire was ruled accidental and was probably caused by leaving something on the stove. Damage is estimated at $30,000 and there were no injuries.

Soups and smoothies make for quick, healthful meals.

New Year's food resolutions to improve wellbeing

(StatePoint) Improving one's overall wellbeing is often top-of-mind when New Year's resolutions are made. Positive lifestyle changes are heavily rooted in the kitchen -- start there and take simple steps to achieve better health.

Whole foods focus

Fresh, unprocessed foods are the cornerstone of a healthful diet. Whole foods include fruits, vegetables, legumes, whole grains, nuts and seeds -- all presented in their purest forms, free of unnecessary additives such as artificial flavors, colors, preservatives, sweeteners and hydrogenated fats.

Build a recipe for success with an ongoing grocery list that incorporates natural foods you're excited to try, and begin to make small swaps. If it seems like an adventure, you'll be inspired to avoid high-calorie, low-nutrient foods, and stick to those that provide energy and key disease-fighting properties.

Excellent examples of power-packed foods include bananas, dark leafy greens, black beans, avocados, strawberries, peas, quinoa, almonds, chia seeds and rolled oats. Shopping tip: these foods are typically located around the perimeter of the market.

Mealtime magic at home

Take a few minutes each week to make meal plans. Preparing and consuming mostly home-cooked meals will train your palate to enjoy more healthful fare. And it's worth the effort to know exactly what's in each dish. Over time, you'll learn to cook creatively with whole-food ingredients.

Heathy eating can be a breeze with a wealth of mealtime ideas that take 30 minutes or less to prepare. A high-performance blender, like the Vitamix 780, makes it easy to whip up plant-based concoctions like smoothies, soups and whole-food juices -- even healthy sorbets made from nothing but frozen fruit. The blender has five touchscreen pre-programmed settings and an LED control panel to quickly create recipes with a single touch.

Stick to It

Now that you've committed to a whole foods-centered eating regimen, ensure old habits stay in the past. Take a few moments to write down scenarios that might sidetrack you and how to avoid them.

For example, partner up with friends or loved ones to form a support system and encourage each other to make healthy choices when getting together for occasional meals out. And lastly-- it's okay to indulge here and there. You will be successful if you are happy about your choices and don't feel restricted.

Focus on this new approach to eating to set out on the right course to optimal health. Understand what whole foods are, how to include them in your diet, and work with a support system. You'll be well on the way to long-term success.

Happy Holidays to Everyone!

Antique quilts on display at Woodstock Opera House

WOODSTOCK — Nine antique quilts from the McHenry County Historical Society's collection will be on display Jan. 5 through Feb. 29 at the Woodstock Opera House.

The quilts, dating from the 1860s through 1950s, are available for public viewing from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. Mondays through Thursdays, and 10 a.m. to 6 p.m. Fridays and Saturdays in the Community Room gallery. They also may be seen before, after and during performances.

The fourth annual show features several unique patterns, ranging from a "Robbing Peter to Pay Paul" design to a 1880s "Crazy Quilt" featuring odd shapes and a haphazard pattern, to a snowflake variation dating from the 1930s. The "Double T" celebrated an 1868 marriage in Crystal Lake and a "Bear Paw" variation was quilted by Henry P. Allen in 1898 for his daughter — one of five children he and his wife, Louisa, raised on their Woodstock farm.

For information about the society or its Heritage Quilters, visit www.gothistory.org. The group's newest raffle quilt, "Pieceful Garden," is reminiscent of the 1930s and features a simple nine-patch block with a consistent yellow center; a Jacob's ladder block of white and pastel colors; and a center medallion of appliqued flowers. True to its name, it consists of a whopping 856 blocks! Early quilts often had many scraps of coordinating fabric, and this was the norm during the Depression and 1930s. While this is not a true charm quilt of the period, where every piece is of a different fabric, it gives the impression of great variety.

Tickets are $1 each or six for $5. The drawing will be at around 3 p.m. Friday, Nov. 11, at the McHenry County Historical Society Museum in Union. The winner need not be present. For information, call 815-923-2267.

Courtesy photo

This 1930s pinwheel design was quilted by Emma Honert, who lost her husband and village trustee, William, in a gravel pit accident on Dec. 2, 1908. The father of seven was buried alive and died of a broken neck. Emma survived by taking in laundry and working for the McHenry County Butter and Cheese Co. in town. In the 1920s she moved to Elgin to be near her married daughter but returned following her death in 1943. She was buried in the Union Cemetery.

Historical Society offers $1,000 scholarship

UNION — Applications are being accepted by the McHenry County Historical Society for its annual Nancy Fike Scholarship.

Named in honor of the Society's former administrator, the Society awards the $1,000 Fike scholarship to a graduating senior from a McHenry County high school who plans to study education, history, or the social sciences. This merit-based scholarship will be given in the winning student's name to his or her college /university.

Applicants must have a minimum 3.0 GPA, provide two letters of recommendation (one from a faculty member and one from another representative of the community), show proof of community service, and write a minimum 500-word essay pertaining to McHenry County. Essay topics will be announced each year by the Society. Essays will be judged on content, grammar, historical accuracy, originality, and their bibliography (students are expected to cite their sources). Applications, available online at Gothistory.org, must be submitted by April 1.

For additional information about the Nancy Fike Scholarship, call the Society at 815-923-2267, email info@mchenry-countyhistory.org or visit www.gothistory.org.
