Panthers' battle at border completed

By Chris Johnson

MONROE, Wis. — The Lena-Winslow Panthers hovered around the .500 mark, over the past week of play, as they fell to Monroe, Wi, on Friday April 1, 15-6, but followed it up with a double-digit win over South Beloit, 17-6, on the following Monday.

In the loss to Monroe, the Panthers couldn't find their swing and couldn't capitalize

Batter up

River Ridge/Scales Mound (Hanover, IL) fell to the Lena-Winslow Panthers Varsity in a back-and-forth affair, 5-4.

on opportunity, as they could score just one run, through the third inning of play.

The hosts, however, scored five times in the second and added three more in the third.

Into the fourth inning, Monroe was in front 8-1.

The fourth inning was effective for Lena-Winslow, as they found a way to manufacture three runs, to help refocus on the task at hand.

In inning later, in the top of the fifth, the Panthers had climbed to within two runs, 8-6.

The moment faded, quickly, in the bottom of the fifth inning as Monroe put seven runs in the books and took command, 15-6.

The statement was received, as Lena-Winslow would not score again, falling by nine runs.

On Monday, April 4, a lot of things were forgotten, it seemed, as the Panthers pounded out 17 runs, in a conference win over the South Beloit Sobos.

With the pitching staff getting into mid-season form, batters for both teams struggled to get offense generated.

Through one and a half inning, the game was scoreless.

In the bottom of the second, South Beloit broke the ice and scored the first run of the game.

One inning later, the one-run advantage continued for South Beloit, as Lena-Winslow scored in the top of the third, but saw the Sobos do the same, in the bottom half of their inning.

Heading into the fourth, the Sobos led 2-1.

As had been witnessed in previous games this season, Lena-Winslow scored in groups, over the next few innings.

In the top of the fourth, the Panthers scored three times and grabbed the 4-2 edge.

In the top of the fifth, Lena-Winslow added four more.

With South Beloit batting, in the bottom of the fifth inning, they were looking at an 8-2 deficit.

The Sobos scored twice in the bottom of the fifth, grabbing momentum, into the sixth.

Lena-Winslow did not score in the top of the sixth inning. South Beloit did, in the bottom of the inning.

With just the seventh inning to go, Lena-Winslow was in front, 8-5.

No pitching could stop the Panthers in the top of the seventh.

Lena-Winslow scored nine times in the top of the seventh and carried the 17-5 edge into the South Beloit last-at-bats, in the bottom of the seventh..

South Beloit scored once, as the Panthers took the NUIC battle, 17-6.

Five ways to know if it's a Publishers Clearing House scam!

Information compiled by Tony Carton
Editor

STATELINE — Publishers Clearing House is the REAL deal a legitimate sweepstakes company that has awarded more than $225 Million in Cash and Prizes so far! Unfortunately, sometimes criminals try to cash in on their good name and trick unsuspecting people like you with Publishers Clearing House Scams. While they may be convincing, here are five foolproof ways to know for sure if an offer is from the REAL PCH — or if it's a Publishers Clearing House Scam.

1. If you're required to wire or pay any amount of money in order to claim a prize, it's a Publishers Clearing House Scam. PCH sweepstakes are ALWAYS FREE to enter, and there is never any fee associated with winning.

2. If you're asked to load up a Green Dot MoneyPak or other money transfer card, in exchange for claiming your prize, it's a Publishers Clearing House Scam. Again, PCH will NEVER ask you to pay a cent to collect a prize.

3. If someone tries to contact you in advance regarding a prize delivery, it's a Publishers Clearing House Scam! After all, that would ruin the surprise! For decades, our Prize Patrol has captured the elated reactions of surprised winners and used them in nationally-televised commercials. You'll know you're a big PCH winner if you see the Prize Patrol at your front door holding a "Big Check" with your name on it!

4. If someone calls you on the telephone claiming to be from Publishers Clearing House and says you have won, it's a Publishers Clearing House Scam. Do NOT give them any personal information! As stated above, the Prize Patrol awards all Big Prizes in person and would never call you to update any personal information in our files.

5. If someone claiming to be from Publishers Clearing House tries to send you a friend request on Facebook, it's a Publishers Clearing House Scam. Even if they are using the name and photo of a prominent PCH employee do NOT believe them. PCH employees and official PCH Prize Patrol Fan pages will never private message you on Facebook.

So fans, keep these 5 tips in mind, and you'll be protected against Publishers Clearing House Scams. And if you ever have any concerns about whether something is legitimate or a scam, please email Publishers Clearing House at abuse@pch.com, call 1-800-392-4190.

FROM THE DESK OF STATE REPRESENTATIVE BRIAN W. STEWART

STATELINE — I just arrived back in northwest Illinois after spending the past week in Springfield, though we should have been back to work the entire month of March it appears the next seven weeks will be very busy. No budget resolutions were discussed yet, but many pieces of legislation were debated in committees and sometimes in a manner not conducive to good government but nonetheless argued on their merits. There were 2,181 House Bills and 1,194 Senate Bills introduced this year and it never ceases to amaze me as to the content of some of these bills. Here are a two of those bills.

House Bill 6308 was introduced which seeks to amend the Juvenile Court Act and provides that persons under 21 years of age (rather than

Brian Stewart

STATE
REPRESENTATIVE

18 years of age) who commit misdemeanor offenses are subject to proceedings under the Act for delinquent minors. According to testimony by the Juvenile Justice Commission young people between the ages of 18-21 are still developing mentally and emotionally and thus should be treated as Juveniles. Now keep in mind that at age 18 you can enlist in the military and fight and die for our country; you can have Healthcare Power of Attorney and make life or death decisions for a loved one; you can Vote; you can enter into contracts and make many other adult decisions. In fact I don't think I am aware of any responsible young person between 18-21 who does not want to be treated as, and considered an adult.

Also consider Misdemeanor offenses including violent offenses such as Battery; Domestic Battery; Aggravated Assault of a Handicapped Person, Senior Citizen, Teacher, Firemen or EMT; Criminal Sexual Abuse; People who expose themselves to children; Unlawful Use of Weapons or DUI to name a few. In other words this bill, if it were to pass, would mean that if you were between the ages of 18-21 and you were to commit any of these crimes, we are supposed to treat you as a juvenile or like a 12 year old. No, I do not support this bill and I am sure many of you don't either.

By now you may have heard Senate Bill 3729 was introduced and would impose a 30 cent per gallon hike in motor fuel taxes. This would bring Illinois gasoline taxes to 60 cents per gallon and easily the highest rate of any state. Yes, you read that right a whopping 60 cents per gallon gas tax. The proponents have indicated that these funds would be used to fund state and local roads, public transportation, railways and other projects. Now don't get me wrong I am a strong proponent of creating jobs and having safe roads in Illinois, but we simply can't afford such a massive increase which would cost consumers and businesses much more.

One of the good bills was one that I introduced again was House Bill 4636. This bill seeks to amend the Economic Development for a Growing Economy Tax Credit Act which removes certain provisions concerning conditions that the Business Investment Committee shall determine exist. In other words before Illinois grants incentives to retain businesses that are already here or to attract other business to move to Illinois the business must obtain a competing proposal from another state. Now let me put this in another way. If you are in business and a customer brings you a proposal from a competitor and asks you to beat the competition what would you do? If you are a competitive type of business man or woman you sharpen your pencil, put fresh batteries in your calculator and you beat the competition! Unfortunately for Illinois that is exactly what Iowa and our neighboring states are doing to us. Jo Daviess County has lost at least 3 businesses to Iowa the past few years and this is happening all across Illinois. This bill was up in the Revenue Committee this week and I presented testimony in support. I also appreciated Lisa McCarthy from the Tri-County Economic Development Alliance, Tony McCombie the Mayor of Savanna and Vicky Trager the Mayor of Thomson attending the committee hearing as well. We will continue to push this bill forward and will continue to work hard to resolve this budget crisis. Illinois deserves the best for its citizens.

This week's session reminds me of a quote by Tony Abbott who stated, "I understand that government should live within its means, value the money it holds in trust from you the taxpayer, avoid waste, and above all else, observe the first maxim of good government; namely, do no avoidable harm."

As always, you can reach me or Sally at 815-232-0774 or e-mail us at repstewart@gmail.com. You can also visit my website at www.repbrianstewart.com or on Facebook.

HCC Trustees approve budget reduction measures

FREEPORT — The Highland Community College Board of Trustees approved measures to reduce payroll costs for Fiscal Years 2016 and 2017 during a special meeting held April 8. The actions include a reduction in payroll expenses of approximately $506,000 to partially address an estimated $2.25 million shortfall (approximately 10 percent of operating fund revenues) over the course of Fiscal Years 2016 and 2017.

The cuts are a direct result of the ongoing State budget impasse in Springfield. Currently in the tenth month of a budget year that has seen no State funding, with little to no chance of receiving the budgeted revenue, Trustees are addressing a fiscal dilemma. It is anticipated that the institution will see a significant reduction in State assistance next year, as well, as compared to years past.

“Although this plan will necessitate reallocation of scarce resources, every effort has been made to ensure that the quality of academic programs and services to students are protected,” said HCC President Tim Hood. “We believe that the strengthening of and growth in academic programs during recent years has improved the financial position of the College. Without this positive momentum, the reductions that we are now instituting would have been more sweeping.”

Additional plans for Fiscal Year 2017 include $700,000 in general reductions in areas such as, employee travel & training, property/liability insurance, employee benefits, and the College-funded student worker program as well as about $240,000 in additional revenues that include $6 per credit hour increase in tuition for fall 2016 approved by the Board in March.

Reductions in salary and benefits include the elimination of five full-time positions, one part-time position, transitioning three positions from full-time to part-time, the reduction of working hours for two part-time employees, as well as not filling approximately one-and-a-half current vacant positions.

Included in the salary and benefit reduction is a furlough plan that will impact all full- and part-time administrative and professional staff, as well as full- and part-time non-union support staff. This measure is projected to result in a savings of $31,000.

“We certainly do not want to minimize the impact of jobs lost and working hours affected. Such decisions are extremely difficult and have been delivered with respect and compassion,” said Hood. “Those affected have given valuable service to the College and our students.”

Due to sound fiscal management, growth in student headcount, and the use of the fund balance, the College has been able to continue operations without eliminating positions until now. Most colleges and universities in the state began eliminating positions much earlier this year. According to Hood, “We remained optimistic that remedies to the State budget crisis would have occurred before now, although reliable sources in Springfield confirmed that the hopes for our budget for this year are all but gone and prospects for level funding for next year are minimal at best.”

“Significant efforts have been made to reduce expenses and increase revenues where possible to avoid reductions in force; however, it became evident in the past sixty days that the situation would not be relieved anytime soon. Accepting this reality, payroll reductions are now unavoidable,” said Hood. “Like most community colleges across the state, 80 percent of Highland’s expenses are comprised of salaries and benefits.”

According to Vice President of Administrative Services Jill Janssen, the College has been effectively managing the impact of a declining funding stream from the State for several years. “This past fiscal year, the College has taken steps to further reduce expenses, such as limiting outlays to those that are deemed essential, reducing staffing through attrition and restructuring, reducing employee benefits, and negotiating savings with vendors,” said Janssen.

“We intend to move forward with plans to continue adding new high-quality academic programs and continue strengthening present programs to better serve our constituents,” said Hood. “New and existing partnerships with our region’s businesses, industries, community organizations, and school districts will allow us to further expand program offerings in a financially responsible manner, positioning the College for a sustainable future.”

The Highland Community College Board of Trustees will consider approval of the Fiscal Year 2017 tentative budget during their July meeting.

Each student designated as a State Scholar receives a congratulatory letter, a Certificate of Achievement and statewide recognition in the news media.

Highland Summerset Theatre auditions to be held April 16

FREEPORT — Highland Community College's 43rd season of Summerset Theatre will be auditioning for "Joseph and the Amazing Technicolor Dreamcoat" at 11 a.m. on Saturday, April 16 in the Fine Arts Theatre located in the Ferguson Fine Arts Center.

The director is seeking talented singers, dancers and musicians. There are roles for men and women, and youth. Highland Community College Theatre Department is actively seeking a multi-cultural cast and utilizes non-traditional casting in their productions.

No monologues or prepared songs are necessary to audition. There is a dance portion of the audition. Please wear clothing in which you can move.

Performances for "Joseph and the Amazing Technicolor Dreamcoat" will be held July 7, 8, 9, and 14 thru 17.

Joseph and his coat of many colors comes to vibrant life in this delightful musical parable. Joseph, his father's favorite son, is a boy blessed with prophetic dreams. When he is sold into slavery by his jealous brothers and taken to Egypt, Joseph endures a series of adventures in which his spirit and humanity are continually challenged. He is purchased by Potiphar where thwarting advances from Potiphar's wife lands him in jail. When news of Joseph's gift to interpret dreams reaches the Pharaoh (wryly and riotously depicted as Elvis), Joseph is well on his way to becoming second in command. Eventually his brothers, having suffered greatly, unknowingly find themselves groveling at the feet of the brother they betrayed, but no longer recognize. After testing their integrity, Joseph reveals himself leading to a heartfelt reconciliation of the sons of Israel. Set to an engaging cornucopia of musical styles, from country-western and calypso to bubble-gum pop and rock 'n' roll, this Old Testament tale emerges both timely and timeless.

FROM LENA'S KITCHEN

The not so skinny cook

LENA — We certainly have had our fill of wind this fall, winter and now spring. It continues to blow everything that isn't fastened down, and some things that are. The warm up never came this week; now they are predicting maybe this week it will be warmer. I had to even drag out a warmer coat on Friday! I thought I was finished with it, but the weather Grinch decided we would have some more bone chilling cold. This week's recipes are trying to get us into spring. We have a great appetizer, a nice salad, some easy main entrees, and a great dessert.

The first recipe is for an easy appetizer. Asparagus has been making its way into our grocery stores at a pretty good price. If you are looking for a different and classy appetizer, this next recipe is for you. I love using puff pastry. It literally melts in your mouth. The Parmesan gives it just a little kick. Enjoy this tasty appetizer at any time of the year.

Asparagus Pastry Puffs

1 lb. fresh asparagus, trimmed
4 oz. cream cheese, softened
¼ C. grated Parmesan cheese
1 T. stone-ground mustard
2 t. lemon juice
¼ t. salt
¼ t. pepper
1 pkg. frozen puff pastry, thawed

1 egg
2 T. water
Preheat the oven to 400. In a large skillet, bring 1½ inch of water to a boil. Add the asparagus and cook, uncovered 1-2 minutes or until crisp-tender. Remove asparagus and immediately drop into ice water. Drain and pat dry.

In a bowl, mix the cream cheese and the Parmesan, mustard, lemon juice, salt and pepper. Unfold pastry sheets; cut each sheet in half to make four rectangles. Spread each rectangle with a fourth of the cream cheese mixture. Arrange the asparagus over the top allowing tips to show at each end; roll up jelly-roll style. Using a serrated knife, cut each roll into four sections.

Place on a parchment-lined baking sheet, seam side down. In a bowl, whisk egg with water and brush over the tops of the rolls. Bake for 25-30 minutes or until golden. Remove to a wire rack and serve warm.

I love butter or Boston lettuce. The little heads are just the right size for someone who lives alone. The taste is great too. This salad blends the oranges and onions together with a tasty vinaigrette. This salad would go great with either of the main dishes which follow.

Butter Lettuce Salad with Oranges and Red Onion

3 navel oranges
1 T. extra-virgin olive oil
1 T. white wine vinegar
2 t. honey
1½ t. Dijon mustard
Salt and pepper to taste
4 C. torn butter (or Boston) lettuce

¼ C. thinly sliced red onion
Squeeze 2 T. juice from 1 orange into a bowl; peel and separate other two oranges into sections. Whisk in oil, vinegar, honey, and Dijon. Season with salt and pepper. Toss the lettuce, oranges and red onion with the vinaigrette.

This easy chicken casserole uses one of my favorite pastas—linguine. I like the flat spaghetti because a lot of sauce or in this case filling sticks to the noodles. The chicken makes this vegetable pasta dish just right. I always use reduced salt chicken broth. If you don't have kosher salt, you can use sea salt or regular salt. Just be sure you taste it before you dump the whole ½ teaspoon in. You may not need salt at all. I never add as many red pepper flakes as a recipe calls for. Most of my friends add more, so it is just a matter of taste.

Tetrazzini with Vegetables and Chicken

4 oz. linguine
½ C. boneless, skinless, chicken breast, diced
2 T. olive oil, divided
8 oz. (½ lb.) mushrooms, sliced
1 C. diced carrots
1 C. julienned green peppers
¼ C. diced onion
1 T. minced fresh garlic
1 C. skim milk
½ C. chicken broth
¾ C. grated Parmesan cheese
½ t. red pepper flakes
½ t. kosher salt
½ t. pepper
2 T. apple cider
¼ C. chopped fresh parsley

Preheat the oven to 375. Coat a 1½ qt. baking dish with cooking spray. Cook the pasta in boiling water until al dente, about 6 minutes and drain. Sauté the chicken in 1 tablespoon of oil in a sauté pan over medium-high heat, about 5 minutes. Transfer to a paper-towel-lined plate. Add the mushrooms and sauté until liquid evaporates, about 5 minutes.

Add the remaining tablespoon of oil to pan; sauté the carrots, peppers, onion and garlic until carrots soften, about 4 minutes. Stir in flour and cook 1 minute. Add the milk and chicken broth, stirring constantly until sauce thickens, about 2 minutes. Reduce the heat to low. Stir in the Parmesan cheese, pepper flakes, salt and pepper unto the sauce until the cheese melts. Stir in the apple cider, chicken, pasta, and 2 tablespoons of parsley; transfer to prepared baking dish. Bake the casserole until bubbly, about 15 minutes and let cook for 5 minutes. Garnish with remaining parsley.

This slow cooker recipe is great for a weeknight meal. You cook the meat with carrots and tomatoes in the crock pot and then shred the meat after five hours of cooking. Serve it over your favorite pasta—penne, rotini, shells, or whatever you fancy. If you can't find the crushed tomatoes with basil, just add the crushed tomatoes and a ¼ teaspoon of dried basil.

Beef in Creamy Tomato Sauce

3 lb. beef chuck roast, cut in half
½ t. pepper
1 T. olive oil
1 cup of onions, finely chopped
3 garlic cloves, minced
1 can (28 oz.) can crushed tomatoes with basil
6 oz. tomato paste
4 carrots, finely chopped
¾ C. heavy cream
1½ lb. penne pasta, cooked

Trim the fat from the beef. Sprinkle with salt and pepper. Heat oil in a large skillet over medium. Add the onion and cook until translucent, about 3 minutes. Add the garlic and cook 1 minute. Transfer onions and garlic to a slow cooker and return the pan to high heat. Add the beef and brown on all sides, about 10 minutes. Transfer to a slow cooker.

Add the crushed tomatoes, tomato paste and carrots to the slow cooker. Cook on high for 5 hours. Remove the beef and shred with two forks. Return the beef to the slow cooker and cook uncovered 1 hour, or until sauce thickens. Stir in cream. Serve the beef and sauce over cooked pasta.

The last recipe is for a great dessert. You make it easy because you use a cake mix. The almond flavoring adds just the right touch, and the caramel frosting is absolutely delicious.

Almond Cupcakes with Caramel Frosting

1½ C. sliced almonds
1 box Super Moist White Cake Mix
Water, oil and eggs called for on cake mix box
1 t. almond extract

Frosting

½ C. unsalted butter
1 C. packed brown sugar
¼ C. milk
2 C. powdered sugar
Preheat the oven to 350. Place paper baking cups in each of a regular sized 24 muffin pan. In a shallow baking pan, toast almonds for 6-10 minutes, stirring occasionally until golden brown. Cool 15 minutes. Reserve 1 cup almonds for garnish. In a mini food processor, grind remaining almonds until finely ground.

CHURCH NOTES

PASTOR'S CORNER

Christianity and world religions

By Gary Rich
Lay Servant, Lena United Methodist Church

LENA — Our Sunday school class continues to study the book Christianity and World Religions by Adam Hamilton. This week we looked at the religion of Hinduism. It originated in India over thousands of years ago. The religion was shaped by a people known as Aryans. Hindus believe they build karma through good thoughts and deeds.

Hindus follow a number of sacred texts from a wide variety of time periods. Hindus have many more sacred texts than the Christian Bible. One of the Hindu books is the Rig-Veda. It has 1028 chapters, some of them mythological stories and others are historical facts. Many chapters describe the relationship of God to nature and humankind. The Rig-Veda is one of four Veda Books. These books were passed down orally until around 1000 BC, when they finally took written form.

Hindus believe in one true God. However, this God can be represented by many different attributes and characters. The stories of various Gods is a way of showing Hindus how Gods interact and how the people can interact with God. Hindus believe the human soul is God within us. Hindus believe we are not born sinners and we have a divine spirit within us. We do bad things because we are ignorant and do not recognize the spiritual truth. Hindus believe we need to gain knowledge to understand our destiny.

Hindus believe that knowledge leads to good work and will ultimately achieve nirvana. They believe in the law of karma; we build up good karma through good thoughts and deeds. Through a cycle of birth, death, and rebirth they continue to try to achieve a life with no bad karma. When this point is achieved, they are then united with God in a state called "nirvana."

In Hinduism, God is in everything and everything is part of God. In Christianity, God is distinct from creation. Creation is God's handiwork, but not God himself. We are made in God's image, but we are not God.

I do not think Hindus would feel a closeness to God or a personal connection to God. They are on a spiritual ladder and hope someday to reach that closeness. As Christians, we can experience God's presence and have a relationship with Jesus. As we mentioned earlier, Hinduism uses images and statues to view God. As Christians, we are not to make idols or anything else by which to worship God. (Exodus 20:4-6) Hindus feel they need more knowledge to feel close to God. As Christians, we seek God's grace which is given freely when we accept him as our Savior. Our works are a response to God's grace, not a way of achieving it.

Hindus feel they have multiple chances to get it right; Returning again and again to attain the required knowledge. As Christians, we need to accept God's grace while on earth. I am sure there are many loving, caring, and gentle people following the belief of Hinduism, but they do not have the hope and faith that Jesus Christ gives us. They do not have the grace that comes by believing that Jesus died for us on the cross and that by that grace we are saved. Next week we will take a look at Buddhism.

The April Community Grace Meal will be served at Noon in Luther Hall.

The Fifth Quarter youth (seventh and eighth grades) will meet at 6 p.m. on April 17 followed by Genesis (high school) youth group at 7:30 p.m. All interested youth are welcome to participate.

The Women's Gathering will meet on Tuesday, April 19, to clean the kitchen in Luther Hall. They will then meet for a bible study at 11 a.m. followed by a soup and sandwich lunch. The Helping Hands committee will meet at 6:30 p.m. on Tuesday, April 19.

Members and non-members alike are welcome to participate in two different Bible Studies at St. John's. The Monday evening bible study is at 7 p.m. and features a discussion titled "The Book of Job". This spring, our Monday night group will study the tragedy and restoration of Job, and perhaps even test our own sense of faith, piety and devotion to our Lord. The Thursday morning bible study is held at 9:30 a.m. and has begun a new series on "Peter and Paul." As the Old Testament had their Patriarchs of Abraham, Isaac and Jacob; so too do we have the Apostles St. Peter and St. Paul in the New Testament. This bible study will follow their journeys of faith in the early days of Christianity and will be accompanied by video clips. You are welcome to join in on any or all of the bible studies! Both bible studies are held in the Conference Room of the Lower Level. The door on the east side of the building will be open for the bible studies.

Pearl City suffers sole setback on season

By Chris Johnson
Reporter

MONROE, Wis. — The Pearl City Lady Wolves suffered their first loss of the season, in a game played on Saturday, April 9, in Monroe, Wis. In the season setback, Pearl City gave up two runs. The Lady Wolves could only manufacture one of their own, however, leading to the loss, with the overall mark now dropping to 9-1.

Pearl City improved to 9-0, earlier in the day, as they defeated Spencer, 10-4, another participant in the Monroe softball tournament..

In the loss to Monroe, Pearl City could not find its offense. Monroe allowed three hits on the day and committed just one error, as they took early control and never relinquished it.

Following a scoreless first inning, the Lady Wolves defense yielded a run, in the top of the second inning.

Pearl City responded with one of their own, a half inning later.

In the top of the third, the game was tied at one, as Monroe stepped in and snagged the one-run edge, 2-1.

The lead would never fall as Monroe held on for the single-point victory.

Kendra Melville pitched strong, through five solid innings, as she struck out five batters and walked none.

In the win over Spencer, earlier on Saturday, the Lady Wolves jumped into a 6-0 lead, in the top of the second inning.

Spencer scored four runs in the bottom of the fourth inning, to cut into the Pearl City advantage, 6-4.

Neither team would score again, until Pearl City, batting in the top of the seventh inning, scored four runs.

Spencer was shutout by the Pearl City pitching staff, as they could only connect for five hits, on the day.

Spencer committed four errors in the tournament loss.

Pearl City moved to 9-0 on the season, with the win

On Thursday, April 7, the Galena Lady Pirates stopped by for a visit and were ushered away with an 8-1 loss.

As the baserunner moved around the edges, Pearl City began manufacturing runs.

In the bottom of the first, the Lady Wolves had their first run.

In the bottom of the second, they added two more.

With Galena held scoreless into the sixth inning, Pearl City added to their total, and held a 6-1 edge, before Galena could score.

The Lady Wolves scored two runs in the bottom of the sixth inning and held Galena scoreless in the seventh.

In the 8-1 NUIC win, Clark struck out 14 batters for Pearl City.

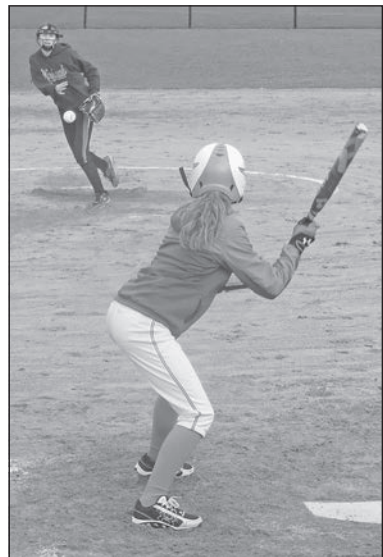

An earlier test faced Pearl City on Monday, April 4, as the Milledgeville Lady Missiles visited.

Offense visited frequently for Pearl City, through the first three innings, as the Lady Wolves grabbed leads of 2-0, 3-2 and 5-2, into the top of the fourth.

After adding the sixth run of the game, in the bottom of the fourth, Pearl City settled in, as they had the 6-2 edge.

Milledgeville would add the final run of the game in the top of the sixth inning.

Pearl City remained perfect in the NUIC, with the conference win.

One way we can help each other get through these challenging times is to keep our dollars local. Here are three good reasons.

Reason #1: Shopping locally saves you gas and wear and tear on your vehicle.

Reason #2: When you spend your money locally, you support the businesses whose property taxes pay for our municipal services.

Reason #3: Many of our youth programs are supported and sponsored by local businesses and if we don't support them, they can't support our kids.

mix, water, oil, eggs and almond extract on low speed for 30 seconds, then on medium speed for 2 minutes, scraping the bowl, occasionally. Fold in ground almonds. Divide batter evenly among the muffin cups.Bake and cool as directed on the box for cupcakes.In a 2 quart saucepan, melt butter over medium heat. Stir in brown sugar. Heat to boiling, stirring constantly. Reduce the heat to low; boil and stir for 2 minutes. Stir in milk. Heat to boiling. Remove from heat.
Cool to lukewarm, about 30 minutes.Gradually stir powdered sugar into the brown sugar mixture.
Place saucepan of frosting in a bowl of cold water. Beat with spoon until smooth and spread-able. If frosting becomes too stiff, stir in additional milk, 1 teaspoon at a time. Frost a few cupcakes at a time with 1 tablespoon frosting each; press reserved almonds lightly into frosting. Store loosely covered.Track meets and ball games haven't gotten any warmer. The Cubs open on Monday night,and it will be really cold. I have mentioned in the past that my parents used to always go to opening day at Wrigley Field.
Most of the time they were in winter coats, hats and gloves.
It never dampened their desire to go to that opening day. We Cub fans have high hopes this year; I hope we won't be saying that next year will be our year in the fall. They did start out with two wins. Sometimes it takes weeks before that happens—
"hope springs eternal!" Just a reminder--rhubarb will soon be making an appearance, so we are looking for some rhubarb recipes. Mother's Day brunch is fast approaching also. If you have

PASTOR'S CORNER

"Who am I Lord God.... That you have brought me this far?"

By Dave Offermann,
St. John's Lutheran Church, Lena

LENA — Several years ago a young friend of mine graduated from college. He was intelligent, motivated, and outgoing. His gpa reflected an excellent work ethic and he quickly landed a job with a local investment company. I can still remember the excitement in his voice as he called to tell me the good news. Several months later I received a very different kind of phone call. He was frustrated and anxious and questioning God's plan for his life. The hype and glamour of his new position had quickly worn off. The reality of hundreds of daily cold calls trying to build a client list, poor interoffice relationships, and a tiny cubicle had set in. It would take a job change and a family relocation before he finally found his feet in the business world.

It's normal to be disappointed when God's timing and design for our lives do not match our expectations. When King David wanted to build the Lord's temple, his desire and motives were correct but God reigned him in, telling David that had lead a life of warfare and that God wanted his son Solomon to build his holy house. Regardless of his ability, desire or resources God reigned him in and told him the project was not to be his (I Chronicles 22:8).

David could have exploded in anger. He could have pouted in disappointment. He could have stubbornly plowed ahead pursuing his own goals. But he didn't. He chose humility. He bent to God's will. In I Chronicles 17:16 David says, "Who am I, Lord God....that you have brought me this far?" David went on to praise God and affirm his devotion to Him. To David, his connection with his Father was more important than his own personal ambition.

Likewise, many generations later, a great, great, great grandson of David came face to face with the will of God in the garden of Gethsemane. Jesus, in all his humanity, did not want to willingly face the terror of the cross on Good Friday. In his prayers, he fervently begged his Father to take this hardship from him. Mark 14:46, "Abba Father" he said, "Everything is possible for you. Take this cup from me. Yet not what I will, but what you will." Jesus, like his grandfather David, ultimately chose humility and bent to the will of his Father in heaven.

What is more important to us — achieving our will, pursuing our personal dreams and hopes, or letting the will of God, our love for God, shine through us?

A little levity to lighten your day

A lawyer went duck hunting up north. He shot a bird, but it fell into a farmer's field on the other side of a fence. As the lawyer climbed over the fence, an elderly farmer drove up on his tractor and asked him what he was doing. The litigator responded, "I shot a duck and it fell in this field, and now I'm going to retrieve it." The old farmer replied, "This is my property, and you are not coming over here." The indignant lawyer said, "I am one of the best trial attorneys in the area and if you don't let me get that duck, I'll sue you and take everything you own." The old farmer smiled and said, "Apparently, you don't know how we settle disputes. We settle small disagreements like this with the 'Three Kick Rule.'" The lawyer asked, "What is the 'Three Kick Rule'?" The farmer replied, "Well, because the dispute occurs on my land, I get to go first. I kick you three times and then you kick me three times and so on, back and forth until someone gives up." The attorney quickly thought about the proposed contest and decided that he could easily take the old codger. He agreed to abide by the local custom. The old farmer slowly climbed down from the tractor and walked up to the attorney. His first kick planted the toe of his heavy steel-toed work boot into the lawyer's groin and dropped him to his knees. His second kick to the midriff sent the lawyer's breakfast gushing from his mouth. The lawyer was on all fours when the farmer's third kick to his ample rear end, sent him face-first into a fresh cow pie. The lawyer summoned every bit of his will and remaining strength and very slowly managed to get to his feet. Wiping his face with the arm of his jacket, he said, "Okay, you old fart. Now it's my turn." The old farmer smiled and said, "Nah, I give up. You can have the duck."
