in Virginia in 1912, Dorothy Height was a civil rights and women's rights activist focused primarily on improving the circumstances of and opportunities for African-American women.

One of Height's major accomplishments at the YWCA was directing the integration of all of its centers in 1946. She also established its Center for Racial Justice in 1965, which she ran until 1977.

In 1957, Height became the president of the National Council of Negro Women. Through the center and the council, she became one of the leading figures of the Civil Rights Movement. Height worked with Martin Luther King Jr., A. Philip Randolph, Roy Wilkins, Whitney Young, John Lewis and James Farmer—sometimes called the "Big Six" of the Civil Rights Movement—on different campaigns and initiatives.

The numerous honors bestowed upon her include the Presidential Medal of Freedom (1994) and the Congressional Gold Medal (2004). She died on April 20, 2010, in Washington, D.C.

Rock County Health, Friends of Noah to give low-cost pet vaccinations

In association with Rabies Awareness Week, the Rock County Public Health Department, Friends of Noah and local veterinarians are sponsoring a low fee rabies vaccination clinic for cats and dogs at the Rock County Fairgrounds on Saturday, Sept. 24 from 1 to 4 pm.

People with unvaccinated cats and dogs are invited to attend. The fee is $10, cash only. Dogs must be on leashes and cats confined to carriers.

A limited number of leashes and carriers will be available. Animal owners are responsible for keeping their pets under control. Vaccinations are good for one year.

If an owner can provide proper documentation of a prior rabies vaccination, their dog or cat can receive a three-year vaccination. Animal health care will be limited to the rabies vaccination.

YWCA Rock County is part of an international movement serving over 2 million in the United States and 25 million worldwide.

The rabies clinic augments good pet care. Every pet owner should have a relationship with a veterinarian to provide basic health care for their pet. If owners are currently working with a local veterinarian for the pet care, they are encouraged to continue that relationship for rabies vaccination and other animal health care.

"Rabies can threaten all members of the family, including pets," said veterinarian Dr. Steven Servantez. "When untreated, rabies in humans is almost always fatal. However, it is also 100% preventable."

This underscores the critical need for community members to take the appropriate steps to prevent and control rabies."

Additional information on the rabies vaccination clinic is available on the Friends of Noah website at www.friendsofnoah-wi.org.

Machesney Park plans removal of asbestos from Penney's

By Bob Balgemann
REPORTER

The village plans to hire a company to remove asbestos from the former J.C. Penney Outlet building it owns at the south end of the Machesney Towne Center, 8702 N. Second St.

Public Works Supt. Chad Hunter explained that before the village purchased the building in 2015, a pre-sale inspection found asbestos beneath some of the flooring in the main sales and office areas.

During the closing, he said the village was able to negotiate a credit of $122,000 to remove the mastic that was identified with the asbestos material.

The village plans to use part of the credit to hire a contractor to remove the asbestos "to give the space a clean bill of health and make it more desirable to buyers," he said.

Staff received bids from three licensed asbestos contractors as follows: Husar Abatement, Ltd., $49,500; Bal-estrieri Group, $87,512; and Tropical Environmental Inc., $122,250.

Acting on staff's recommendation the administration and finance committee voted Sept. 6 to approve a resolution that accepts the low bid submitted by Husar Abatement. The full village board is expected to act on the recommendation at Monday night's meeting.

Meanwhile, the search is continuing for retail tenants to occupy the front 40,000 square feet of the 110,000-square-foot building.

"We've been showing the building and are hopeful we'll have occupants lined up soon," James Richter II, community development director, said.

Before receiving the asbestos credit, the village was on target to buy the building for 900,000. The asking price was $1.2 million. The 5-2 vote in favor of the purchase came Jan. 2, 2015, with trustees James Kidd and Aaron Wilson dissenting.

Since acquisition the village's public works department has relocated from village hall to 10,000 square feet in the old Penney's building. Cost of remodeling was $3,500.

Message parlors
In addition, the village is working on a text amendment to its zoning ordinance to make message parlors a special use, only allowable in the commercial general district.

First stop for the proposal was the planning and zoning commission. After discussion, commissioner laid the issue over to their Sept. 25 meeting.

As proposed, the amendment would require additional information of the applicant at the time request is submitted. The business also would have to meet required criteria as generally is the case with special use requests.

There was a motion to approve the amendment, with a second, at the commission's Aug. 22 meeting. But action was delayed after:

* Commissioners expressed concern about Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act, known better as HIPAA, and the proposed requirement that massage establishments keep a log of client information.

HIPAA is a federal law that gives people rights over their health information. It sets rules and limits on who can look at and receive that information.

* There was a lot of conversation about separating the "massage parlors" the village is seeking to regulate from massage therapists who are health and wellness related. Some were concerned the regulations eventually could impact chiropractors and physical therapists.

Staff explained the regulations would apply only to a business that just offers massages that are not of a medical nature. Also, they would not impact massages that are accessory to a hair salon or similar business.

Currently, there are no such businesses in Machesney Park.

Roast Turkey with Gravy

- 1 whole uncooked turkey
- 2 tablespoons olive oil
- 3 teaspoons Angostura Aromatic Bitters, divided salt
- freshly ground pepper
- 1/2 yellow onion, cut into 4-5 pieces
- 2 large cloves garlic, peeled
- 3 tablespoons flour
- 2 teaspoons brandy
- 1 can (14.5 ounces) chicken broth

Heat oven to 400 F. Prepare turkey normally, removing giblets from cavity. Combine olive oil with 2 teaspoons bitters; rub all over turkey. Sprinkle turkey generously with salt and pepper. Add onion and garlic to bottom of roasting pan.

Place turkey on rack in pan. Cover and roast as directed for size of turkey. Internal temperature when done should be 165 F.

While turkey roasts, stir together flour, brandy and remaining bitters; stir until mixture is smooth and no longer lumpy. Whisk in chicken broth and set aside.

When turkey is done, remove from pan to serving platter; cover with foil to keep warm. Remove onion and garlic from pan; discard. Tilt pan toward one end and skim excess fat from top of pan juices. Place pan on stovetop over medium-high heat. With wire whisk, add broth mixture and stir constantly, scraping browned bits from bottom of pan. Continue to stir until gravy has thickened. Season with salt, to taste.

Serve with sliced turkey.

Note: For thicker gravy, add 1 tablespoon flour to 1/4 cup water; stir until smooth. Stir 1-2 tablespoons hot gravy into mixture then whisk into roasting pan. Continue stirring until gravy thickens more.

- 2 cups unbleached all-purpose flour
- 1 cup sugar
- 1 teaspoon baking powder
- 1/2 teaspoon salt
- 1/4 teaspoon baking soda

Heat oven to 350 F. Lightly grease 9-by-5-inch loaf pan.

If using frozen cranberries, spread berries out on cutting board and let rest for 10 minutes. Cut large cranberries in half.

In large bowl, combine flour with sugar, baking powder, salt, baking soda, nuts and egg; blend thoroughly with whisk. Stir in cranberries.

In small bowl, whisk together buttermilk, butter, orange zest, orange juice, bitters and vanilla extract. Add to dry ingredients and stir gently until fully moistened; do not over mix. Spoon batter into pan and smooth out top.

Bake 50 minutes, or until toothpick inserted in center comes out clean. Let rest in pan 10 minutes then turn out onto wire rack to cool completely for at least 1 hour before slicing.

Island Eggnog

- 2 cans (14 ounces) sweetened condensed milk
- 3 cups canned evaporated milk
- 2 cups Angostura 7 Year Rum

- 1 teaspoon Angostura Aromatic Bitters
- 1 cup plain dry breadcrumbs
- 4 tablespoons shredded Parmesan cheese
- 1/2 teaspoon dried sage, thyme or marjoram

Heat oven to 400 F. With damp paper towel, wipe mushroom tops. Remove bottoms of stems. In large bowl, slice mushrooms about 1/4-inch thick.

Melt 1 tablespoon butter. Combine cooking wine, soy sauce and bitters; stir in butter. Pour over mushrooms and let stand 10 minutes, stirring frequently.

In small bowl, stir together breadcrumbs, cheese and sage. Melt remaining butter and stir into breadcrumb mixture; set aside.

Pour mushrooms into shallow 8-inch baking dish. Bake 10 minutes. Remove from oven and spoon out 4-6 tablespoons juice. Sprinkle mushrooms with breadcrumb mixture and bake 10 minutes more, or until crumbs are golden.
