FAMILY FEATURES

When the holidays approach, it's the perfect time to up your game in the kitchen with standout recipes.

A knockout holiday meal starts with a main dish like filet mignon topped with Roasted Garlic Compound Butter for a rich treat, paired with cheesy a sidekick like these Crispy Cheddar Mashed Potato Puffs. Finally, top off the night with Honey and Blackberry Cheesecake with Gingersnap Crust, and you'll have guests ready to come back next year.

A New Twist on a Classic Holiday Recipe

Transforming family recipes into something memorable is easy when you use high-quality, wholesome ingredients, made with love from Borden Cheese. With a wide range of offerings, including mild cheddar, mozzarella, sharp cheddar, Mexican, Swiss, American, Colby Jack and more, Borden Cheese is available as singles, shreds, chunks, slices, strings and snacks – offering pure, creamy goodness to satisfy every taste. Add a new twist to your holiday spread with this delectable recipe for Crispy Cheddar Mashed Potato Puffs, which uses chunks of mild cheddar, and find more recipes at BordenCheese.com.

Crispy Cheddar Mashed Potato Puffs

- 3/4 cup sour cream, divided
- 1 teaspoon finely chopped chives or green onions, plus additional for garnish
- 8 ounces Borden Cheese Medium Cheddar Chunk, divided
- 2 medium russet potatoes (about 1 pound), peeled and chopped
- 2 tablespoons Borden Butter
- 1/8 teaspoon garlic powder
- 1/8 teaspoon seasoned salt
- 1/8 teaspoon dry mustard
- 1/4 teaspoon salt
- 15 bacon strips, cooked crisp and crumbled
- 1 cup beer batter dry mix oil, for frying

To make chive cream: In small bowl, mix 1/2 cup sour cream and chives or onions together. Refrigerate.

To make cheddar crisps: Heat oven to 400 F. Shred 4 ounces cheese to make about 1 cup shreds. Divide shreds into eight piles, about 2 inches apart, on silicone baking mat or parchment paper-lined cookie sheet and bake about 5 minutes, or until cheese melts and becomes crisp. Let cool 5 minutes and remove from baking sheet.

Reduce oven temperature to 180 F.

To make potato puffs: Place potatoes in medium saucepan and cover with cold water. Heat over medium-high heat and boil potatoes until tender; drain.

In electric mixer bowl fitted with paddle, beat potatoes with butter on medium-low speed until smooth then add remaining sour cream and all seasonings. Stir in crumbled bacon. Cut remaining cheese into eight 1/2-inch cubes. Form balls of mashed potato mixture using ice cream scoop. Make small hole in center of each potato ball and fill with one cube cheese. Cover with additional mashed potato so cheese is hidden inside. Refrigerate until ready to fry.

In large saucepan over medium-high heat, heat oil to 375 F.

Prepare beer batter according to package directions; dip each mashed potato ball into batter and deep-fry about 5 minutes, or until golden brown. Remove from oil and drain on paper towel. Reheat oil to 375 F between batches. Keep potato puffs warm in holding oven.

On plate, top potato puffs with dollop of chive cream, chives and cheddar crisp. Serve immediately.

A Rich, Buttery Main Dish

It's easy to add buttery richness to just about any protein you choose to serve at your holiday gathering with this easy compound butter. The sauce takes little time to make and adds an unforgettably elegant touch to filet mignon, making it perfect for your next holiday celebration. Cut from the heart of the tenderloin, Omaha Steaks Filet Mignon is aged to peak flavor and tenderness, vacuum wrapped and flash frozen to lock in freshness. Find more holiday main dish ideas and recipes at omahasteaks.com.

Roasted Garlic Compound Butter

- 2 heads garlic
- 2 teaspoons olive oil
- 1/2 teaspoon kosher or sea salt
- 1 stick unsalted butter, at room temperature
- 2 Omaha Steaks Filet Mignons (6 ounces each), prepared

Heat oven to 350 F.

Slice about 1/4 inch off each garlic head to reveal cloves. Remove any excess outer layers of paper on garlic.

On sheet of aluminum foil, drizzle each garlic head with 1 teaspoon olive oil. Wrap foil tightly over garlic. Roast 40-60 minutes, until garlic is golden and can be easily pierced with a knife. Let cool 15 minutes.

In bowl, squeeze garlic cloves out of paper. Add salt and mash with fork to create paste. Add butter and combine with fork, ensuring paste is well blended into butter.

Place butter on edge of a sheet of parchment or wax paper. Fold paper over butter and roll into cylinder. Twist ends of paper and refrigerate until solid.

When ready to serve, cut chilled butter into slices and place on top of prepared filet mignons.

Note: Unused butter can be kept in refrigerator for about 2 weeks.

A Simply Sweet Dessert

Once the satisfaction of a full meal wears off and the craving for one final course comes calling, there's no better dessert to turn to than the creamy delight of cheesecake. Add in the sweet flavors of honey and blackberries, and you'll find yourself perfectly content to wind down the holiday get-together. For more ways to infuse honey into your holiday menu, visit honey.com.

Honey and Blackberry Cheesecake with Gingersnap Crust

Recipe courtesy of the National Honey Board

Crust:

- 2 cups (8-ounce package) crushed gingersnaps
- 1/4 cup melted butter

Cake:

- 1 1/2 pounds cream cheese, softened
- 3/4 cup honey
- 1/3 cup heavy cream
- 1 tablespoon vanilla
- 1 tablespoon gluten-free all-purpose flour
- 1/8 teaspoon salt
- 4 large eggs
- 1 pint fresh blackberries

Garnish:

- 1 pint fresh blackberries (optional)
- honey (optional)

Heat oven to 350 F. In medium bowl, combine crushed gingersnaps and butter. Transfer mixture to 9-inch springform pan. Stick hand in sandwich bag and firmly press mixture into bottom of pan to form crust. Bake 8 minutes. Remove from oven, reduce heat to 300 F and allow crust to rest.

Meanwhile, using stand mixer, beat cream cheese at medium speed 3-4 minutes. Add honey, cream, vanilla, flour and salt. Beat until mixed. Add eggs, one at a time, beating between each addition. Beat mixture until just combined.

Pour cream cheese mixture into prepared crust. Drop blackberries on top of mixture. Bake 65 minutes. Turn off oven and leave cake in oven 1 hour. Remove and allow to cool.

Run knife around sides of cheesecake. Cover and chill overnight. Remove sides from pan. Serve with additional berries and drizzle with honey, if desired.

Caregiving Stress and the Holidays

Presented By: Monica Zweifel, MSW, APSW • St. Croix Hospice

The holidays can bring joy and stress. Understanding the increased stress to caregiving during the holidays and understanding the changes that happen to the caregiver during the holidays can help one identify healthy coping skills.

Shannon Nelson, Director of Social Services at Alden Meadow will be available to answer questions and assist with filling out POA and Advance Directives paperwork.

FOR THE RECORD

FOUR OUT OF FIVE? REMEMBER THAT ONE?

Do you remember those old commercials that said "four out of five dentists recommend sugarless gum for their patients who chew gum?"

That's actually great advice – although we always wondered exactly what the fifth dentist recommended!

But here's another statistic that's actually much more important.

Four out of five adults over the age of 35 have some form of gum disease! That's pretty scary isn't it?

Gum disease (or as we call it "periodontal disease") occurs when bacteria in the mouth cause the gum tissues to become inflamed and infected. And since our mouths are already loaded with bacteria (including healthy strains), periodontal disease is quite common.

As it gets more severe, gum disease will cause the tissues surrounding the teeth to become red and puffy, and they may bleed easily. The infection may progress to where it actually starts to eat away at the bone that holds the teeth in place! That's why gum disease is the #1 cause of tooth loss in adults – more than cavities, accidents, or anything else! To make matters worse it causes horribly bad breath!

In its early stages, gum disease can only be detected by the team of dental professionals. That's why we sometimes call it "the silent killer". You also may have heard of recent studies that suggest gum disease is linked with heart disease, diabetes, low birth weights, and many other threatening health conditions.

There is good news! In most cases gum disease can be successfully treated right in our dental office without the need for a gum specialist or surgery. Of course it will take some work on your part (you knew it was coming – proper brushing and flossing), but the path to treatment begins with your dentist and dental hygienist.

If you are in need of or overdue for your dental exam and cleaning, don't wait – call now! We will perform a thorough check of your gums to make sure they are healthy. Don't worry and don't delay – we are here to help you save your teeth!

Any questions? at Rockton Dental Care your health and comfort come first! Feel free to give us a call at 815-624-2626 to schedule an appointment or to discuss any dental health matters
