LeWin dominates Chicago Orr in second round

By Trent Scheidegger
REPORTER

Lena-Winslow hosted Chicago ORR last Saturday for the second round of high school football playoffs.

The Panthers found themselves with an early eight point lead when Isaiah Bruce took a 28-yard run into the end zone and Sean Ormiston followed up with the two point conversion.

Bruce scored the Panthers second touchdown of the day, with a 25-yard run on third down, eventually leading to a 16 point Le-Win lead. The Panthers defense proved strong as they forced yet another Chicago ORR punt, on which the Spartans botched the snap, leading to great field position for the Panthers.

Sean Ormiston took advantage of the generous field position, with a 15 yard touchdown run of his own, putting the Panthers up 24-0 with six minutes left in the first quarter. The LeWin offense seemed unstoppable, scoring touchdowns on three of their first four plays from scrimmage.

The Panther defense was dominant once again, forcing the fourth Chicago punt in just the first quarter. The strong defensive play led to another possession starting in Chicago ORR territory.

The Spartan defense stopped the Panthers for the first time late in the first quarter, but strong defense from the Panthers once again led to a botched snap on the punt by the Chicago Spartans as their punter was tackled in the end zone for a safety putting LeWin up 26-0 with 1:22 left in the first.

The Panthers would score quickly once again when Ronnie Valentine was off to the races for a 28-yard touchdown run. Valentine followed up with the two point conversion, putting LeWin up 34-0 near the end of the first quarter.

Chicago Orr had decent field position on their next drive but a sack from Parker Magee, and a delay of game, led to third and about 40 for the Spartans. After forcing another Spartan punt, the Panthers drove down field, and QB Cade Benson finished it off with a QB sneak to give the Panthers a 41 point lead late in the second quarter.

Keegan Gyland was able to find the end zone himself with a six-yard touchdown run. Valentine followed up once again with the two point conversion as the Panthers got out to a comfortable 49-0 lead. The wide point spread would lead to a running clock in the second half.

Looking to stay healthy, the Panthers put the backups in for the second half, which Chicago ORR was able to score twice on them. The running clock would lead to a very quick second half however, as the Panthers took home a 49-14 victory.

LeWin will face off with the surprising nine-seed in Aurora Christian for round three this week.

EPC with powerful road win in round two

By Trent Scheidegger

The EPC football team traveled to Chicago last Saturday to face off with Chicago Christian in round two of the Illinois high school football playoffs.

The Kempel Brothers were back at it once again as they got the Wildcats off to a hot start, leading EPC down the field, eventually leading to a 26-yard touchdown run from Jayden, giving the Wildcats a seven point lead early in the first.

The Wildcat defense was able to block a Chicago Christian punt which gave EPC great field position as they looked to expand their early lead. A 15-yard touchdown run by Jared Kempel would give EPC a 14 point lead with 5:21 left in the first quarter.

A sack from Eli Dertz would give the Wildcat offense the opportunity to soon score again. Jared Kempel found the endzone for the second time, this time with a 12 yard scamper, giving the Wildcats a 21 point lead late in the first quarter.

Early on in the second quarter Jaydon Kempel scored his own second rushing touchdown. This time from five yards out, putting EPC up 28-0 with 10 minutes left in the second quarter.

Chicago Christian was able to get themselves on the board midway through the second, with a touchdown pass of their own. A failed conversion would leave them with a 22 point deficit, however, now down 28-6.

Jared Kempel and the Wildcats waived no time in answering, however. Jared scored for the third time last Saturday with a 62-yard touchdown run to put the Wildcats up 35-6 with 5:27 left in the first half.

The EPC defense was also impressive last Saturday, as an interception from Jaydon Kempel gave the Wildcats great field position once again.

Jaydon Kempel was able to take advantage of his interception with a score of his own on the ensuing drive. This time through the air, Kempel caught a 26 yard pass from Braden Smargiassi, for a 42-6 lead just before halftime.

The Wildcats would receive to start the second half, and on just their second play, Jaydon Kempel was off and running once again. This time for a 60-yard touchdown run as he gave the Wildcats a 48-6 lead. The long run would also open up the running clock for the remainder of the game.

As the backups came in, Chicago Christian was able to find the endzone one last time. A 26 yard touchdown run and a 2 point conversion would bring the score to 48-14 in the fourth quarter.

EPC would take advantage of the running clock the rest of the way, however, as they ran the clock out on an impressive round two victory.

EPC will head to Orion to face off with the undefeated two-seed for round three of the playoffs this week.

Salvation Army Christmas letter

Can you believe it is almost Christmas already? Where did the year go? 2018 has been a year of great blessings and great challenges. We have served over 2,000 people in some capacity and have started some innovative programming aimed at giving a hand-up to those on the edge in our community. The need here is great.

As we begin our Christmas preparation and get out the familiar red kettles and repair our bells we covet your help! Perhaps one of the opportunities below will peak your interest and allow us to stretch our limited budget.

* Opportunity #1: Sign up to ring! Can you host a day at a kettle or offer a few hours? We have multiple locations in Freeport, Lena, and Stockton. Every volunteer hour is equated to putting 15+ in the kettle as we don't have to pay to earn that money! Spots are available Monday through Saturday 8 a.m. to 7 p.m. We are looking to have fun while collecting the much needed funds to serve our community. Come join us as we bring hope to our community!

* Opportunity #2: Drop your change (or $100 bills) in a Counter Kettle. Those pennies and dollars add up fast!

* Opportunity #3: Food insecurity is a very real concern in Stephenson County. Perhaps you have noticed a large red Food Barrel at your work or while shopping. Currently we provide lunch to an average of 100 people Monday through Friday. Our pantry serves over 320 families per month and distributes over 400 Christmas meal boxes. We serve holiday meals so no one has to eat on a holiday alone. By dropping a few non-perishable food items in a barrel you help us to collect the much needed commodities to meet these needs.

* Opportunity #4: Shop for a Toy Barrel or an Angel Tree. We know that a toy will never pay a bill or fill a stomach, but childhood is so fleeting. Last year alone over 300 children were blessed. The happiness and joy that we saw during our "Angel Walk" to "shop" for toys was heartwarming. There are various locations in the community as well as our office where you can pick up tags with gift suggestions as a starting off point. We serve children from birth to age 12. Or maybe you want to be an Angel Walker at our toy shop - call Captain Lee at 815 235 7639.

* Opportunity #5: If you are unable to participate could you pass the word? There are also numerous opportunities for volunteering during this season and beyond as we operate year round.

For more information or to volunteer please contact our Christmas Coordinator Sunshine Mergen at: 815-235-7639 or sunshine_mergen@usc.salvationarmy.org We want to keep her busy!

Thank you so much for taking the time to consider these requests. We pray that you have a most blessed holiday season and that our new year is even better than the past!

BARBARA JOAN MILLERSCHONE

Barbara Joan Millerschone, age 87, of Elizabeth, Illinois passed away on Thursday, Oct. 25, 2018. Graveside services were held Oct. 28 at the Elizabeth Cemetery. Friends and family are invited to share in Barbara's life at www.lawjonesfuneralhome.com.

Barbara was born on Aug. 15, 1931 at her family home in Elizabeth to William "Bill" and Helen (Dittmar) Cording. She was the third youngest of four girls. She graduated Elizabeth High School in 1949; "a 49er". She went to work for Jack Schwirtz Chevrolet Oldsmobile as a bookkeeper; not using a computer but skilled at using an adding machine, pen and paper. In 1951, she was in a car accident that changed her life forever. Despite her prognosis, her determination got her through. On May 18, 1956, Barbara married John Millerschone at Christ Lutheran Church in Stockton. Years later, untimely as it was because of a job change, recovery from major surgery, and caring for/losing her mother, Barbara and John were blessed with a daughter, Barbara never returned to full time work, rather worked part time from home and babysat many children. Well into retirement, her last babysitting was with her granddaughter to whom she taught the simple and quiet pleasures of life.

A lifelong resident of Elizabeth, Barbara knew so much town history and loved reminiscing about it. She was involved in the local American Legion Auxiliary and Girl Scouts. She had a love of music; listening to it, playing some on the piano and singing; once singing with the County Choir at Soldiers Field. She traveled quite a bit and took note of every new and different thing she saw. She enjoyed reading the paper, doing puzzles, watching birds at her feeders and the flowers and vegetables in her garden grow. She enjoyed cooking and in her later years finding recipes for others to cook. Barbara was masterful with thread and needles. She could sew, darn, tat, and embroider but she excelled at knitting and crocheting. She was proud of the ribbons her meticulous work won at fairs and the compliments she received from others. Never a sports enthusiast, Barbara enjoyed following her granddaughter's teams, but she was more proud of her granddaughter as a motivated student and pianist.

Barbara will be missed by her daughter Crystal Millerschone and her husband Jeff "Stumpy" Williams of Elizabeth, her granddaughter Louisa Williams, of Tucson, AZ and younger sister Charli (William) Chesney of Freeport. She was preceded in death by her husband, parents and 2 older sisters, Ruth Stanley and Bernadine Sprague Gregg.

A special thanks to those who touched Barbara's life in a positive way. No matter how big or small the act, your kindness was always appreciated by her and her family.

GLENN L. ROWE

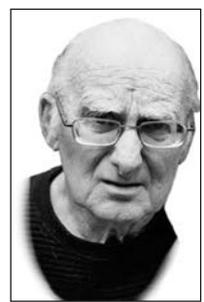

Glenn L. Rowe, age 73 of Stockton, IL passed away Tuesday, Oct. 23, 2018 at FHN Memorial Hospital. He was born on Jan. 20, 1945 in Freeport to the late Charles H. "Red" and Doris M. (Stiefel) Rowe. Glenn married Carol Bannister Butler on Dec. 16, 1988 in Stockton.

He was a 1963 graduate of Stockton High School. Early in his life he worked on farms, did roofing in Louisiana, and later did factory work in NW IL. He last worked for Stockton Township, Dura Automotive (Atwoods/Excel), the Warren Cheese Plant, Primera Foods, and Kolb Lena Cheese. He loved to hunt and fish, and enjoyed the outdoors. He loved to glean asparagus and watercress to share with others. He also enjoyed bringing home bushels of orchard fresh apples from Richland Center in WI to distribute. He was a member of Calvary United Methodist Church in Stockton and a 30+ year member of a local 12-step program.

Glenn is survived by his wife, Carol of Stockton; his step children, Trevor (Alicia) Butler of Aurora, IL, and Jodie (Eric) Seibert of Kasbeer, IL; and his grandchildren, Jenna and Clare Seibert. Other survivors include a brother, Ronald Rowe of Stockton; his sisters, Darlene Shumaker of Hanover, Carol Strohecker of Pearl City, and Diane (Daniel) Kunz of Stockton; and his sister-in-law, Lynn Rowe of Stockton. He was preceded in death by his parents; brother, Kenneth Rowe; great nephew, Tyler Binns; brother-in-law, Jerome Shumaker; and sister-in-law, Nancy Rowe.

The memorial service will be held on Saturday, Nov. 17, at 2 p.m. at Calvary United Methodist Church in Stockton with a visitation before the service beginning at 1 p.m. A private graveside service will be held at Ladies Union Cemetery. Church news

Area families make global impact through Operation Christmas Child

Christ Lutheran Church in Stockton will be among 5,000 U.S. drop-off locations collecting shoebox gifts for children overseas during Operation Christmas Child's National Collection Week, Nov. 12-19.

Operation Christmas Child is a project of Samaritan's Purse, an international Christian relief and evangelism organization headed by Franklin Graham. The mission of Operation Christmas Child is to demonstrate God's love in a tangible way to children in need around the world and, together with the local church worldwide, to share the Good News of Jesus Christ. Since 1993, Operation Christmas Child has collected and delivered more than 157 million gift-filled shoeboxes to children in more than 160 countries and territories.

Families, churches and groups are busy transforming empty shoeboxes into fun gifts filled with toys, school supplies and hygiene items. The Samaritan's Purse project partners with local churches across the globe to deliver these tangible expressions of God's love to children affected by war, disease, disaster, poverty and famine. For many of these children, it will be the first gift they have ever received.

This year, area residents hope to collect more than 15,000 gifts to contribute to the 2018 global goal of reaching 11 million children.

"We are honored to be linking arms with our community to help children around the world experience the true meaning of Christmas," said Regional Director Gia Garey Moser, "These simple gifts show God's love to children facing difficult circumstances."

For more information on how to participate in Operation Christmas Child, call 612-359-7025, or visit samaritanpurse.org/occ. Participants can donate $9 per shoebox gift online through "Follow Your Box" and receive a tracking label to discover its destination. Those who prefer the convenience of online shopping can browse samaritanpurse.org/buildonline to select gifts matched to a child's specific age and gender, then finish packing the virtual shoebox by adding a photo and personal note of encouragement.

Have you begun your Christmas shopping?

"What should I get Grandma or Aunt Betsy, my sister or my daughter? What should I give to the babysitter or my dear friend? They already have everything they need or they just go out and buy it themselves. And Aunt Kathy lives so far away."

You've said these words before. You know you have. Why make gift giving so hard for you? They will all be decorating for the Christmas season very soon.

Let Volunteer Visitors help you. Why not give them the aroma of Christmas this year!

Give them a wreath they can hang either on the wall inside or on a door outside their house! Give a beautiful candlelit Centerpiece for their holiday table, an Evergreen door spray, a mini tabletop Christmas Tree or a four-foot tree they can plant outside in the spring.

Stop in at the Volunteer Visitors office at 105 S. Main Street in Stockton to see a sample of one of the beautiful wreaths we have to offer, or call our office at 815-947-3260.

FROM LENA'S KITCHEN

The not so skinny cook

Halloween is a memory, and we are impatiently waiting the end of the election (I am so tired of ads and calls and how much money is being spent I could scream) and maybe the beginning of the insanity of the end of the year. I love these crisp days, and when the sun shines, it is glorious. This week's recipes have a little of that and a little of this—I think there might be a broccoli theme in here somewhere.

The first recipe is for a cabbage salad that has an interesting lime and honey dressing. You can make your own slaw with cabbage and shredded carrots, but the bagged one is so much easier. If you are like me, you don't have extra cabbage left when you are using the bagged mix. I shred radishes on my small hand shredder, and it works great. Try this interesting cabbage slaw with any pork dish, and it is great.

Cabbage Salad
Dressing:
 ¼ C. fresh lime juice
 3 T. olive oil
 1 T. honey
 Salt and pepper to taste
 1 bag coleslaw mix (14 oz.)
 3 large shredded radishes
 1 avocado, dices
 ¼ C. sliced green onions
 Whisk together lime juice, oil and honey; season with salt and pepper. Toss the coleslaw mix, radishes, avocado, green onions with dressing; season with salt and pepper

I am into stir fry recipes these days, and the next two use chicken and beef as the main dish ingredient. The second one has a hot pepper in it, and you can drop that if peppers aren't your favorite. Use some pepper flakes instead if you need a little heat. Enjoy these fast main dishes for a change before we get all wrapped up in turkey and things.

Orange Chicken Stir Fry
 5 T. olive oil, divided
 1 medium red pepper, seeded and chopped
 1 small red onion, chopped
 1 C. sliced carrots
 ½ lb. fresh green beans, trimmed and cut into 1-inch pieces
 1 lb. boneless skinless chicken thighs, cut into ½ inch thick strips
 ¼ C. cornstarch
 ¼ C. chicken broth
 ¼ C. orange marmalade

1 T. Worcestershire sauce
 1 t. ground ginger
 ¾ t. garlic powder
 In a large nonstick saucepan, heat 1 tablespoon of oil over medium high heat. Add the pepper, onion, and carrot; cook for 5 minutes. Reduce heat to medium. Add green beans; cover and cook, stirring occasionally until vegetables are tender, about 10 minutes. Remove from pan. In a large bowl, toss together the chicken and cornstarch until coated. Increase the heat to high, add remaining 4 tablespoons of oil to the pan. Add chicken and cook until browned and meat thermometer in thickest portion registers 165, about 8 minutes. Return vegetable mixture to pan. Add broth, marmalade, Worcestershire, ginger and garlic; cook until sauce is slightly thickened, about 1 minute. Serve over hot cooked rice.

Beef and Broccoli Stir Fry
 12 oz. Spaghetti
 3 T. sesame oil
 1/3 C. low sodium soy sauce
 2 T. sugar
 2 T. rice vinegar
 4 garlic cloves, minced
 1¼ lbs. sirloin steak, sliced thinly against the grain
 1 t. cornstarch
 4 T. oil
 1 head broccoli, cut into small florets
 1 can (8 oz.) sliced water chestnuts
 1 chile pepper halved and thinly sliced
 3 green onions, thinly sliced
 Bring a large pot of salted water to a boil. Add the pasta and cook as the label directs Drain and transfer to a bowl and toss with 1 tablespoon sesame oil.

Mix the soy sauce, sugar, vinegar, garlic and remaining sesame oil and ¼ cup water in a small bowl. Toss 3 tablespoons of the mixture with the beef in a medium bowl. Whisk the cornstarch into the remaining soy sauce mixture.

Heat 2 tablespoons oil in a large skillet over medium-high heat. Add the broccoli and let brown on the bottom, about 1½ minutes. Toss and continue cooking, tossing occasionally until bright green, about 3-5 minutes. Season lightly with salt. Remove to a baking sheet. Add another tablespoon of oil to the skillet and heat until shimmering. Add half the meat and let brown on the bottom for 30 seconds. Place on baking sheet; repeat with rest of the beef including the rest of the oil. Reduce the heat to medium. Add the water chestnuts and the chili to the skillet and toss just to heat. Stir in the soy sauce-cornstarch mixture. Add to the skillet and bring to a simmer. Add the broccoli and meat with any juices to the skillet and toss to coat and heat through, about 1 minute. Serve over the pasta and top with green onions.

Since apples are in abundance this time of year, this recipe is an easy one to make. It doesn't have many ingredients, so it is easy to put together.

Apple and Brown Butter Blondies

- 1¼ C. butter
- 2 C. flour
- 1 t. baking powder
- 1 t. cinnamon
- ¼ t. salt
- 1 C. sugar
- 1 C. packed brown sugar
- 2 eggs

3 medium apples, peeled, cored, and diced

Heat butter in a large skillet over medium heat until light brown, then pour into a large bowl. Cover and chill 30 minutes, stirring once.

Preheat the oven to 350. Lightly grease a 9 x 13 baking dish.

Whisk together the flour, baking powder, cinnamon, and salt in a bowl. In another bowl, beat together the browned butter, sugar, brown sugar, and eggs with an electric mixer until smooth and creamy. Beat in flour mixture until well combined. Fold in apples, then spread batter evenly in prepared baking dish. Bake until a toothpick inserted into the center comes out with most crumbs clinging, about 45 minutes. Transfer pan to a wire rack to cool.

If you like caramel and chocolate, these brownies are for you. It is easy on preparation because you start with a brownie mix. Enjoy these gooey treats when you need a chocolate fix.

Chocolate Caramel Candy Bar Brownies

- 1 box (18.4 oz.) brownie mix
- 2 eggs
- ½ C. oil
- ½ C. water
- 1 pkg. (10 oz.) shortbread cookies

ies
5 oz. cream cheese, softened
½ C. sugar
1 pkg. (11 oz.) soft caramels
2 T. milk
3 (4 oz.) bars semisweet chocolate, chopped
2 T. unsalted butter
1 pkg. (8.7 oz.) Twix Candy bars chopped
Preheat the oven to 350. Spray a 9 x 13 baking dish with baking spray with flour. Line pan with parchment paper, letting excess extend over the sides of the pan.

In a large bowl, stir together the brownie mix, eggs, oil, and ¼ cup of water until well combined. Spread batter into prepared pan.

Bake until just set, 15-20 minutes. Let cool completely. Position oven rack in top third of oven; leave oven on.

In the bowl of a food processor, pulse together the shortbread cookies, cream cheese, and sugar until well combined. Press mixture on top of cooled brownie layer; bake for 8 minutes.

In a medium saucepan, cook caramels and milk over medium low heat, stirring frequently until melted and smooth. Spread onto cookie layer. Freeze until caramel is set, about 30 minutes. In a small saucepan, cook chocolate and butter over low heat, stirring constantly, until melted and smooth. Spread chocolate onto caramel layer; top with chopped Twix bars. Refrigerate until chocolate is set, about 30 minutes. Using excess parchment as handles, remove from pan before cutting bars. Sprinkle with chopped candy bars.

The trick or treaters were really cute. I didn't have quite as many as last year, but we still had several hundred of the little ghosts and goblins, princesses, sports figures, action figures, and many more. The most original and cutest was one that was a stick of dynamite. Almost to a fault they were polite and thanked us as they collected their candy. Once again the Village of Lena and the Lena Fire Department provided extra help on Mason and Oak Streets. We still had some people who raced down Mason Street, and I always breathe a sigh of relief when the night is over. Thank you to those adults who manned the streets to keep our children safe. (I need to start lobbying for more lights on our very dark streets.) We continue to look for some apple, squash, and pork recipes as well as Thanksgiving recipes. If you would like to share, please send them in. You can contact us in person, by mail, or email us at From Lena's Kitchens, Shopper's Guide at 213 S. Center St. or email scoopshopper@rvpublishing.com.

Lena American Legion Auxiliary recognizes Veteran's Day

In honor of the end of WWI, the WWI Centennial Commission is asking everyone to toll their bells on Nov. 11, at 11 a.m. local time. Toll them 21 times at five second intervals.

The Lena American Legion Auxiliary is collecting pictures of servicemen and women, both past and present in their military uniform. We don't want the originals but would like a copy about 8-1/2 by 11 or whatever. Put the name of the individual on the back of the picture. Pictures will not be returned. We would like to make a window display for Veterans' Day. We would like the pictures by Oct. 15, if possible. Please send them to Veteran's Picture, PO Box 21, Lena, IL 61048. For more information, please contact the legion at jameps54@yahoo.com or 815-369-4684.

Highland's Early Childhood Education receives Technical Assistance Credential

Highland Community College's Early Childhood Education program has been approved as an entitled institution for the Gateways to Opportunity Technical Assistance Credential Level through 2023.

Students in the Early Childhood Education program at the college have the opportunity to qualify for state-recognized credentials as they take courses or complete a degree through Highland. The college is among a select group of institutions in Illinois to receive this credential. The credentials reflect multiple professional standards, including the National Association for the Education of Young Children (NAEYC) and the Illinois Professional Teaching Standards (IPTS). The faculty at Highland has worked diligently to align their courses with the Gateways to Opportunity competencies.

"Our program was one of five to initially pilot the Technical Assistance Credential, and I am delighted that we were approved as an entitled institution for the credential," said Melissa Johnson, coordinator for Early Childhood Education. "Students pursuing a TA credential will have additional opportunities open to them to provide relationship-based professional development (RBPDP) within the field of early childhood. These are especially exciting times because state agencies are exploring ways to formally document and utilize RBPDP toward training requirements."

The credential entitles Highland to further goals for graduating students to prepare them for relationship-based professional development, coaching, mentoring, and technical assistance. Gateways to Opportunity, Illinois Professional Development System, is designed to provide guidance, support, and recognition to practitioners who serve children and families. It is administered by the Illinois Network of Child Care Resources & Referral Agencies (INCCRRA) on behalf of the Illinois Department of Human Services (IDHS).

For more information on the Early Childhood Education program at Highland Community College, visit highland.edu.

Meal planning made easy

- * Outline meals you plan to eat for the week and use it as a guide.
- * If you have veggies, dairy, and protein at one meal, include fruit and grains in the next to cover all five food groups.
- * Choose a variety of protein foods throughout the week. If you have chicken one day, try seafood, beans, lean meat, or eggs other days.
- * Prepare enough of a dish to eat multiple times during the week. Making leftovers part of your plan can save money and time.
