Hanover Farmer's Market swings toward Spring

By John Day
REPORTER

There are several Farm Markets in Northwest Illinois. Many of them shut down for the duration of winter, but the Hanover market operates year-round, open for business the first Saturday of each month, from 9 until 11 a.m. until the summer schedule becomes effective in May. The winter market sets up in the Hanover Park District cafeteria.

Four to six vendors offer a wide range of locally grown and produced items. John and Sara Sullivan Farms is a regular. Sara Sullivan said, "The weather has been strange this season but never the less, producers are here every week with plenty of stock."

"We offer our farm raised pork, beef and lamb. In addition to different kinds seasonal vegetables we sell a wide variety of herbs. I grow sage, bay leaf, different kinds of mint, thyme and oregano to name a few. I'm hoping to have chickens after February for fresh eggs."

The odd, wet weather this winter has presented problems for producers small and large. While thick heavy mud makes planting and harvesting difficult, raising livestock during a year of heavy rains presents some serious problems as well. Sullivan said, "Because of the wet soil I'm raising quite a few herbs in pots inside the house just now. Fortunately, I have a very large window allowing for a lot of sunlight."

"Our sheep can be fed hay from bales that we place on concrete alongside, or in buildings. To get food to the cattle and hogs all that can be done is slog through the muddy fields to get the feed to them."

Two well known regulars from local markets who are vendors at Hanover are Terry and Lucy Auen and Sister Julia. Auen provides fresh baked breads and rolls. Sister Julia, Spiritual Director at Christ in the Wilderness Retreat produces a variety of jams and jellies and other home-made goods.

"We're hoping to have as many as 8 or 10 vendors for our summer schedule.."

— Laura Kuzniar

Laura Kuzniar, has taken on the responsibility of making things work and run smoothly at the Hanover Farmers Market. Kuzniar who is a producer herself said, "We're hoping to have as many as 8 or 10 vendors for our summer schedule this year. With the unseasonably warm weather we're having this year some crops may be harvested earlier than usual. That's not necessarily a bad thing for growers. Buyers, however, should check markets frequently for the availability of specific kinds of produce."

"Our summer schedule begins in May when we'll be open every Saturday. During the 2019 season we hope that a good many people take advantage of coming to our farmers market and staying in town for other events. Mallardfest will be the third Saturday of September. Folks can come to the market before the Fest activities begin."

"Hanover Days will be over the July Fourth weekend. We're tying our market into Story Time at the Hanover Library. The Wapello Land and Water Reserve is just minutes south of us on Route 84."

"Cats Closet, an outreach for teens in need of clothing and personal care items who attend River Ridge High School will be open. It will be open for any of those teens who need a little bit of help and it's open in the event that anyone passing through Hanover might want to stop by and drop off some gently used clothing, personal care supplies or make a cash donation."

For information about the Hanover Farmers Market, or learning how to become a vendor, Laura Kuzniar can be reached at Hanover Farmers Market on Facebook.

River Ridge/Scales Mound girls pull off comeback

By Trent Scheidegger
REPORTER

The River Ridge Scales Mound Lady Wildcats hosted Galena last Friday for an inner conference matchup.

The Wildcats found themselves in trouble early on as they surrendered 17 first quarter points, and scored only six of their own. All six first quarter points came from the hands of Captain Tabria Thomas.

Things weren't looking good for the Wildcats early in the second when their deficit grew to 17 as they were down 24-7. Reese Miller eventually provided a boost as she scored five points in the quarter bringing the Wildcats within 10, down 27-17 at the half.

Whatever changes Coach Wiegel and the team made during the break proved to work as the Wildcats seemed to come out a new team in the second half.

Tabria Thomas totaled eight third quarter points, while Maddi Frey had five, and Reese Miller and Morgan Shetler each had four. The collective offensive performance led to a 23 point third quarter and gave the Wildcats their first lead of the night, as they went into the fourth up 40-37.

The Wildcats wouldn't take their foot off the pedal in the fourth as Thomas had her best quarter of the night scoring 10, while the rest of the offense combined for 11 points. Outscoring Galena 21-14 in the fourth, the Wildcats worked their way towards a 61-51 victory over Galena. The victory pushed the Wildcats overall record to 15-6, while they sit at 5-2 in conference play.

Highland seeks artist entries for the 50th District Juried Art Exhibit

Highland Community College seeks entries for the 50th District Juried Art Exhibit in the Highland Gallery. The exhibition, displayed from Feb. 14-March 6, will recognize local artists in the college's district and celebrate visual contributions to the community.

The exhibit is open to original two-dimensional and three-dimensional art in any medium completed in the last two years and not previously exhibited in the Highland Gallery. Artists 18 years and older must live in the Highland district or enrolled at Highland.

All submissions are viewed and accepted or rejected into the exhibit based on meeting the exhibition prospectus criteria: eligibility, rules of entry, and limitations. Submitted work is accepted or rejected based on overall visual excellence determined by components such as compositional resolve, concept, content, and manipulation of media.

Submissions are composed of the actual artwork and supporting identification of work properly documented in the prospectus and entry form. Accepted submissions are viewed in two phases to determine award placement.

Artists may submit up to three works of art with a nonrefundable $3 fee per work. Delivery of the work, entry form and fee will take place from 9 a.m. to 6 p.m. on Jan. 31 at the Highland Gallery, located in the Ferguson Fine Arts Center, 2998 W. Pearl City Rd., Freeport, Ill.

The complete submission requirements, award placement criteria, entry form and prospectus are available at highland.edu/gallery. For questions, email highlandgallery@highland.edu or call Bill Buehler at 815-599-3490.

FROM LENA'S KITCHEN

The not so skinny cook

We did have some normal January weather this past week, so it is time for some good soup recipes. This week we have two soups, a great appetizer, an interesting salad, and two desserts.

This first recipe is for a tasty appetizer that you could make for a football party or just any party at all. I love spinach artichoke dip, so what could be better than using it for stuffing mushrooms. Enjoy this good tasting way of mixing my favorites of spinach and artichokes.

Spinach-Artichoke Stuffed Mushrooms

1 pkg. (5 oz.) baby spinach leaves
1 pkg. (8 oz.) cream cheese, softened
1 pkg. (8 oz.) shredded Italian five cheese blend
1 can (14 oz.) artichoke hearts, well drained, and finely chopped
2 cloves garlic, minced
Dash of crushed red pepper
28 large fresh mushrooms, stemmed
Preheat oven to 375. Cook spinach in a skillet on medium high heat 4-5 minutes or just until spinach is wilted, stirring occasionally. Remove from heat. Cool 5 minutes. Blot spinach dry with paper towels; place in medium bowl. Add all remaining ingredients except mushrooms; mix well. Fill mushroom caps with spinach mixture; place on baking sheet. Bake 30-35 minutes or until mushrooms are tender and spinach filling is heated through.

Last week I told you I was in a Hungarian theme; I think this week it is spinach. This good for you as well as good tasting salad uses spinach, Swiss chard, and carrots. The tangy mustard vinaigrette is just what these greens need.

Spinach, Chard, and Carrot Salad with Mustard Vinaigrette

1 small bunch chard, trimmed and sliced
2 carrots, peeled and shaved into ribbons
4 C. baby spinach
½ C. white wine vinegar
¼ C. honey
3 T. Grey Poupon or any course ground mustard
¼ t. pepper
½ C. olive oil

In a large bowl, toss together the chard, carrot, and spinach. In the container of a blender, pulse together the vinegar, honey, mustard, and pepper until combined. With blender running, add oil in a slow, steady stream until combined. Serve with salad.

I guess I am on a Cordon Bleu kick also. This soup is made in the slow cooker. If you wanted to use store bought croutons, you could. However, if you are like me, you are always making croutons with leftover bread. Enjoy this interesting slow cooker soup that is made from a sandwich.

Slow Cooker Cordon Bleu Soup

1 celery rib, diced
1 garlic clove, minced
¼ t. salt
¼ t. pepper
3 cans chicken broth
1/3 C. water
¼ C. white wine or chicken broth
8 oz. cream cheese, cubed
1 block (6 oz.) Swiss cheese, shredded
½ C. shredded cheddar cheese
½ lb. diced rotisserie chicken
½ lb. diced deli ham
Croutons: preheat oven to 375.

Mix melted butter, garlic powder and pepper. Add bread cubes; toss to coat. Transfer to a jelly roll pan; bake, stirring every 5 minutes until golden brown, 15 to 20 minutes. Remove to wire rack and cool completely.

In a large slow cooker (4 or 5 qt.) combine the onion, celery, garlic, salt, and pepper. Pour in broth.

Cook, covered, on low until vegetables are tender, about 2 hours. Increase the heat to high. Mix flour and water until smooth in a separate bowl; whisk mixture into the slow cooker. Cook until thickened, 30 to 40 minutes. Stir in wine. Whisk in cheese until melted. Add chicken and ham; heat through. Serve with croutons.

The second soup for today uses summer favorites, brats and sauerkraut. If you don't have dark German beer, you can use regular beer. I have had a brat soup in the column before, but this one also adds the sauerkraut. Caraway seasoning is a great way to enhance sauerkraut. I also rinse my sauerkraut and then drain it. I don't need the extra salt, and you won't miss it.

Brat and Sauerkraut Soup

1 pkg. uncooked Brats, halved and sliced

1 t. olive oil
1 C. diced onions
1 C. sliced celery
1 lb. baby red skinned potatoes, quartered
1 T. minced fresh garlic
1 bottle dark German beer
4 C. beef broth
1 t. smoked paprika
1 t. caraway seeds
1 pkg. (2 lbs.) refrigerated sauerkraut, drained

½ C. chopped fresh parsley
2 T. spicy brown mustard
Salt and pepper to taste

Sear the brat slices in oil in a pot over medium high heat until browned on both sides, about 4 minutes; transfer to a paper towel lined plate. Add the onions and celery to pot and cook 3 minutes. Stir in potatoes and garlic and cook until fragrant, 30 sec-

Stockton high school basketball weekly wrap

By Trent Scheiddeger
SPORTS REPORTER

Stockton Girls dominate in Warren

The Stockton girls traveled to Warren last Wednesday for a Northwest Upstate Illini-West Conference matchup. Last time the Blackhawks faced off with Warren they began their win streak, which they looked to extend to 10 games in this match.

The Lady Blackhawks wasted absolutely no time getting out to a lead in this one as they dominated from the tip. Tiana Timpe and Cierra Mapes combined for 12 of the teams 18 first quarter points. The Stockton defense was just as impressive as the offense as they held Warren to just two first quarter points. Outscoring Warren by 16 in the first, the Blackhawks set the tone early on in this one.

The second quarter would be even more impressive from the Stockton offense. Timpe hit two three-pointers while Cheyenne Mapes and Katie Wright had four points each. The trio combined for 16 of the Blackhawks 22 second quarter points. Despite surrendering eight second quarter points to Warren, Stockton found themselves comfortably in control of this one at half, as they went into the break leading 40-10.

The Blackhawks offense would ease up coming out of the break. Timpe stayed hot from behind the arc as she hit her fourth three-pointer of the evening in the third quarter. Elizabeth Eisfeller provided the team with four points of her own in the third, as the Blackhawks went into the fourth with a 49-14 lead over Warren.

Stockton looked to run out the clock the rest of the way in this one, as they were sitting comfortably in the driver's seat late in the contest. Eisfeller would provide the team with another four points in the final quarter, and Ellen Fox hit a three to top things off.

The quality offense and lockdown defense led to a blowout victory over Warren, as Stockton took home a 57-20 victory, and bumping their win streak up to 10 games.

Timpe finished the evening with 18 points, Eisfeller totaled 14 of her own, and Cierra Mapes was the third to reach double digits with 11.

Stockton Boys Fall in Pearl City

The Stockton Blackhawks came into last Tuesday's game carrying a 6-8 overall record, and knew they would be in for a tough battle as Pearl City sits amongst the top of the Northwest Upstate Illini-West Conference.

Things were tight between the Blackhawks and the Wolves in the first quarter. Robbie Reifsteck hit a three early on as teams went into the second tied at 8.

The Blackhawks proved they would be no push-over in the second quarter. The team worked together offensively as four different Blackhawks combined for nine second quarter points. The Stockton defense managed to hold Pearl City to eight points once again, as they went into halftime with slim one point lead, up 17-16.

The third quarter is when Pearl City's offense really opened things up on the Blackhawks. After holding the Wolves to zero first half three pointers, Pearl City managed to hit six of them in the third quarter alone. Aside from four free throws, the barrage of three pointers totaled all of the other points for Pearl City in the third as they finished the quarter with 22, more than they had scored in the entire first half.

Stockton was unable to match the Wolves' pace in the third as the Blackhawks managed just one three pointer of their own. Despite totaling 11 third quarter points, Stockton found themselves heading into the fourth trailing 38-28.

Stockton would begin fouling late in the fourth in an attempt to lengthen the game for a comeback, but Pearl City was strong from the line hitting on five of six fourth quarter free throws. Mitchel Coffey showed some light for the Blackhawk offense in the fourth as he drained two three-pointers, which were a majority of the team's fourth quarter points.

Despite the strong first half, Stockton was unable to hold off the Wolves in the second and they fell by a score of 49-38. Reifsteck led the team with nine points, Garrett Buske finished with eight, and Drew McGovern was right behind them with seven.

The loss put Stockton at 6-9 on the season. Despite the loss, there were certainly some positives to take away from this game for the Blackhawks.

Panther-Hawks dominant in Winnebago

By Trent Scheidegger
REPORTER

It was yet another impressive day on the mats for the LeWin-Stockton wrestling squad last Thursday when they traveled to face off with Winnebago and Polo.

The PantherHawks collected six pins over Winnebago alone as Zach White (106), Simon Rillie (120), Tanner Kalkbrenner (138), Case Harmston (160), Colin Dvorak (170), and Ian Keuhl (285) each dominated their opponents. Their pins led the way towards a blow-out victory with a score of 64-9 over Winnebago. Winston McPeck (132) was also impressive as he won with a Major Decision scoring 13-5. Marey Roby (126) and Jason Hermann (152) each had to battle it out until the end as Roby won by a score of 12-9 and Hermann pulled out a 4-0 victory.

The results were similar, if not even more impressive with their matches against Polo. It seemed every single PantherHawk was getting a pin in this one, as the team collected 10 pins over the Polo boys.

Zach White collected his second pin of the evening just 53 seconds into the match, as did Simon Rillie just one minute 51 seconds into his. Marey Roby also collected an early pin, his first, just 51 seconds into the match.

Andrew Haas (145) bounced back after losing his match, earning a pin midway through his match giving him a 1-1 record on the evening. Harmston and Dvorak each collected their second pins of the evening as well.

Hermann got the pin this time rather than battling it out, as he got the fall just 1:10 into his match, and Gavin Keefer (182) collected a pin just 1:40 into his match. Gennings Dunker (220) topped it all off with a pin at the 2:49 mark.

All the pins led towards yet another blowout, as the PantherHawks took home a 72-6 victory. Last Thursday was arguably their most dominant event, as it seems the PantherHawks improve each week.

Around the Northern Hills with Jo Daviess County Farm Bureau Manager Annette Eggers

On-the-Road Seminar scheduled. Trucking regulations can be complicated, and farm exemptions compound that problem. Seems everyone has a different answer to your question. Come join the Jo Daviess and Stephenson County Farm Bureau's at 1 p.m. on Feb. 8 at the Stephenson County Farm Bureau Building, 210 W. Spring St., Freeport to find out what you need to know.

We're hosting a two-hour seminar that focuses on trucking laws—old and new—specifically for farmers. We'll introduce you to new rules, remind you of the old ones that still apply and help you to figure out whether exemptions are available.

Through-out it all, you'll have the chance to ask those farm trucking questions that everyone seems to have an opinion about, but no one can agree on an answer.

Trucking laws have been reshaped in recent years with more changes yet to come. Rules recently affected include: farmer exemptions, Harvest Season permit, Electron-ic Logging Devices (ELDs), waivers for insulin-related diabetic drivers, a new class "C" license plate, Covered Farm Vehicle options for small trucks, and the UCR payment schedule and fees for 2019.

Annette Eggers

Presenting the seminar will be Kevin Rund and Kirby Wagner who specialize in farm transportation issues for the Illinois Farm Bureau®. And they'll provide take-home materials covering these topics.

The seminar is free courtesy of your county and state Farm Bureaus®, but advance registration is requested. Please call 815-858-2235 by Noon on Feb. 1 to reserve your place at the On-the-Road Seminar.

Anyone that would like to learn more about Federal Crop Insurance is invited to COUNTRY Agent, Bob Dittmar's annual crop seminar and dinner. Come out to the Elizabeth Community Building on Feb. 6, for a great meal, speakers and door prizes. We do ask that you RSVP by Jan. 30, to Bob's office at 815-858-2236 if you plan to attend.

We all know how important that agriculture is to our county. But did you know some of the statistics that go to support that? According to the Census of Agriculture, Jo Daviess County has 935 farms with an average farm size of 291 acres. Some of the statistics that stand out that helps make Jo Daviess County unique are listed below. Here's a few of the categories that Jo Daviess County ranks high in the state:

- First in the state for production of forages
- Second for production of oats
- Fourth in the numbers of acres of corn for silage
- Second in the total number of cattle and calves
- 11th in the total number of sheep and lambs
- First in duck production
- 16th in the number of horses and ponies

We all think of the cattle in the county, but did you find some surprising numbers listed? We have to remember that there are a lot of things going on that we don't always think about.

Ag Fun Fact: One bushel of wheat will produce 73 one-pound loaves of bread.

onds. Deglaze the pot with the beer, scraping up any brown bits. Stir in broth, paprika, and caraway seeds. Add brats and sauerkraut, bring soup to a boil. Cover pot and reduce heat to low. Simmer soup until potatoes are fork tender, 30 minutes.

Off heat stir in parsley and mustard; season with salt and pepper. Top servings with additional mustard if desired.

This bar cookie is an old fashioned one because it uses browned butter. You will be using this delicious brownie a lot after you make it once.

Browned Butter Brownies

2¼ C. flour
1¼ t. salt
½ t. baking powder
12 T. unsalted butter
1¾ C. packed brown sugar
3 eggs
½ C. light corn syrup
2 T. vanilla
1 C. pecans, toasted and chopped coarse
½ C. milk chocolate chips
¼ to ½ t. flake sea salt, crumbled, optional

Preheat the oven to 350. Make foil sling for a 9 x 13 pan folding 2 long sheets of foil; the first sheet should be 13 inches wide and the second sheet should be 9 inches wide. Lay the sheets of foil in pan perpendicular to each other, with extra foil hanging over edges of pan. Push foil into corners and up sides over the edges of the pan, smoothing foil flush to the pan. Lightly spray the foil with vegetable oil spray.

In a medium bowl, whisk the flour, table salt, and baking powder together. Heat the butter in a 10 inch skillet over medium high heat until melted, about 2 minutes. Continue to cook, swirling the skillet and stirring constantly with a rubber spatula until the butter is dark golden brown and has nutty aroma, 1 to 3 minutes longer. Remove skillet from heat and transfer browned butter to a large heat-proof bowl.

Add the sugar to the hot butter and whisk until combined. Add the eggs, corn syrup and vanilla and whisk until smooth. Using a rubber spatula, stir in flour mixture until fully incorporated. Stir in pecans and chocolate chips. Transfer batter to prepared pan; using spatula, spread batter into corners of pan and smooth surface. Sprinkle with sea salt if using. Bake until the top is a deep golden brown and springs back when lightly pressed, 36 to 40 minutes, rotating the pan halfway through the baking.

Let blondies cool completely in pan on wire rack, about 2 hours. Using foil overhang lift the bond brownies out of the pan and transfer to a cutting board. Remove foil and cut into 24 bars.

January is half over, and it seems as if Christmas was a long time ago. I am fighting a cold. I didn't have one all last year, but I didn't go out much. I guess being able to go places and see people is worth the annoyance of a cold. Students will have a long weekend with the celebration of Martin Luther King Day. I know a lot of people like to ski that weekend. I think they are making snow at Chestnut, but it is rather rough going for winter sports people. We continue to look for winter recipes—some appetizers, soups, and sandwiches. If you would like to share, please send them in. You can contact us in person, by mail, or email us at From Lena's Kitchens, Shopper's Guide at 213 S. Center St. or email scoopshopper@rvpublishing.com.

The real estate is improved with a single family residence.

Sale terms: 25% down of the highest bid by certified funds at the close of the sale payable to The Judicial Sales Corporation.
No third party checks will be accepted. The balance, including the Judicial Sale fee for the Abandoned Residential Property Municipality Relief Fund, which is calculated on residential real estate at the rate of $1 for each $1,000 or fraction thereof of the amount paid by the purchaser not to exceed $300, in certified funds/or wire transfer, is due within twenty-four (24) hours. No fee shall be paid by the mortgagee acquiring the residential real estate pursuant to its credit bid at the sale or by any mortgagee, judgment creditor, or other lienor acquiring the residential real estate whose rights in and to the residential real estate arose prior to the sale.

The subject property is subject to general
real estate taxes, special assessments, or special taxes levied against said real estate and is offered for sale without any representation as to quality or quantity of title and without recourse to Plaintiff and in "AS IS" condition. The sale is further subject to confirmation by the court.

Upon payment in full of the amount bid, the purchaser will receive a Certificate of Sale that will entitle the purchaser to a deed to the real estate after confirmation of the sale.

The property will NOT be open for inspection and plaintiff makes no representation as to the condition of the property.
Prospective bidders are admonished to check the court file to verify all information.

If this property is a condominium unit,
the purchaser of the unit at the foreclosure
sale, other than a mortgagee, shall pay the assessments and the legal fees required by The Condominium Property Act, 765 ILCS 605/9(g)(1) and (g)(4). If this property is a condominium unit which is part of a common interest community,
the purchaser of the unit at the foreclosure
sale other than a mortgagee shall pay the assessments required by The Condominium Property Act, 765 ILCS
605/18.5(g-1).

IF YOU ARE THE MORTGAGOR (HOMEOWNER), YOU HAVE THE RIGHT TO REMAIN IN POSSESSION
FOR 30 DAYS AFTER ENTRY OF AN ORDER OF POSSESSION, IN ACCORDANCE
