After 30 years of programming LWTV goes dark

By John Day
CORRESPONDENT

For nearly 30 years, residents of Lena and fans of the Le-Win Panthers have been watching high school sporting events and other programming on LWTV (Lena Winslow Television). Recently, however, a mostly unnoticed statement was issued through the schools Facebook page in the activities section which read in part, "LWTV is no more. This page will be the future method of providing coverage of sporting events."

LWTV began its history in 1989 when cable television began to develop on a nationwide basis. A significant part of the arrangements between cable providers and municipalities was making an allowance for Community Access Programming. Community Access Programming allowed cities, towns, schools and other organizations to produce local programs for broadcast on cable channels at no cost. As the technical state of the art of broadcasting evolved, satellite transmission would also be included.

Mediacom would become the broadcast provider for Lena. In June 1989 Larry Nelson, one of the teachers at Le-Win, took on the task of developing a video production program. The object of the program was to get students involved in broadcasting and providing the community with a quality program for viewing school activities, local sporting events and public service announcements.

Tom Fore, who taught Freshman English and Video Production, would eventually head up LWTV when Larry Nelson stepped down. Fore said, "The LWTV program had always been self-supporting. In addition to producing the broadcast of sports and other school events, we began producing public service announcements and offering advertising to local businesses for a reasonable fee. These commercials were a great way of allowing local businesses an opportunity to target a specific market. The proceeds from these advertisements was put back into LWTV."

Broadcasting and electronics are without doubt the most rapidly changing of any business. In the last 30 years broadcasting has gone from local television, to cable, to satellite transmission to internet streaming, with more changes on the horizon. These technical changes require near constant change in the equipment used not only in transmission to the end viewer, but changes for the program producer as well. The changes can mean expensive equipment purchases and technical expertise.

For those that understand the technical aspects of computer communications and electronics, LWTV had been using analog systems. Today, the state of the art is digital. Mediacom, along with other broadcast companies operates on digital systems and cannot accept production that does not meet their formatting requirements. These kinds of problems as well new construction in parts of the school and other priorities have brought about the end of LWTV.

Fore said, "I took pride in continually making improvements in both the technology and content in LWTV programming to offer the community the best we could. I think that it's a sad day to see LWTV come to an end."

The new plan is to offer sports to the community via streaming through the schools Facebook page. Currently it's a bit difficult to navigate. Hopefully, things will come together.

Larry Nelson, who developed the original program said, "It took about six months to get the idea built. It was fun and a good thing in its day. It was something way ahead of its time. I believe there were about four or five kids that would eventually go on to a career in broadcasting. More importantly, the program gave kids the opportunity to learn how to deal with others in a mature way. It was great fun, but things change. Times change. Sad as it may be, I think it's just a matter of its time has come and time to move on. I'm sure something newer and better will grow out of this."

How your neck curve predicts the future

Research shows that a loss of neck curvature increases the likelihood of a disc herniation. A study also showed that appropriate correction and restoration to the neck curve produced lower rates and degrees of disc problems. For over 40 years Chiropractic BioPhysics Technique has offered the least invasive, the most researched and most effective way to restore a proper neck curvature. Chiropractic has Science, Philosophy and Art, which is what makes our office so unique in our approach to spinal correction.

Forward head posture represents one of the most significant reasons for a decrease in proper neck curvature. Sitting, texting, repetitive computer work, sedentary lifestyles, motor vehicle accidents, and other physical traumas serve as the primary culprits of forward head posture.

Each of these conditions reduce neck curve, leaving the spine weaker and more vulnerable to stress. The trauma also increases pressure on the discs (discs) between each vertebra.

Discs operate similar to shocks on a car. They absorb the pressure of daily wear and tear. Discs are made of cartilage, water, and a gel-like substance in the center for added protection. As alignment of the spine becomes altered, the gel-like nucleus in the middle of the disc becomes slightly displaced. This forces pressure on the side of the disc and stresses the cartilage. Consistent adversity produces tears in the cartilage and forces the gel-like substance to slightly protrude or bulge through the side of the disc resulting in a disc herniation.

Herniations come in a variety of sizes. Smaller herniations tend to be referred to as more of a bulge than a herniation. Yet every herniation leaves the spine weakened and extremely vulnerable to stress and pressure.

New research shows that altered spinal alignment, particularly reduced neck curvature, decreases disc height and increases rates of disc herniations, and disc degeneration. The degenerative process often occurs with no pain. Chiropractors and other spine specialists use expert testing and technology to check for disc space abnormalities or other problems before pain arrives. A proactive approach proves vital to long term functionality. Spinal alignment plays a vital role in the health, durability, and longevity of the spine. Chiropractors promote the importance of spinal correction and restoration without drugs or surgery.

Chiropractors comprise the only natural health providers who focus specifically on detecting and correcting spinal movement, alignment, and nervous system function. Regular chiropractic care helps improve spinal alignment and ensures better curvature, resulting in greater strength, durability, increased disc space, and less risk of disc bulges and herniations. The long-term benefit cannot be measured. Our vertebrae were designed to function best when in a specific position. Research continues to prove when the spine is altered from normal; it WILL affect your health. Every person deserves a healthy spine and future, allowing them to discover their potential.

Jo Daviess County Farm Bureau offering $250 towards R.O.P.S. Purchase. The Jo Daviess County Farm Bureau would like to offer funds to reimburse farmers for purchasing ROPS (Rollover Protective Structures.) Fifty-five percent of farm tractors in Illinois do not have a cab or ROPS (Rollover Protection Structure.) Only 1 in 5 victims will survive a tractor rollover accident. The leading cause of farm related deaths in Illinois is tractor rollover accidents. They account for more than 30% of farm related deaths. ROPS help protect farmers and family members from being crushed in the event of a tractor turnover or rollover. Safety Chairman, Dan Robbe, states that "Safety is a priority of the farm bureau, and we would like to encourage our members to install ROPS on their tractors". Jo Daviess County Farm Bureau members who purchase a ROPS could receive a reimbursement of $250 towards the

AUDREY (JEANNIE) WADE

Audrey (Jeannie) Wade, 79 a resident of Walnut Acres in Freeport, IL passed away on Aug. 3, 2019. Her battle with heart disease and diabetes long term is now won. She can rest now and experience comfort and peace. She was born Aug. 17, 1939 to Harry and Helen (Stanley) Evans of Stockton. She graduated Stockton High School in 1957. She owned and operated Country Side Cafe in Stockton. She waitressed for 65 years attracting many customers from everywhere she worked due to her personality and social skills. She finished her waitressing career at Karen's Kitchen and Catering in Stockton. Dietary and Food was her passion by far. She was a cook at Morgan Memorial Nursing Home and Pearl City Schools. She also worked at Atwood Automotive. When her health began to fail and she could no longer work, she continued her passion by cooking for family and friends. For years, she delivered cookies and other baked goods to less fortunate people who were home bound, especially on holidays. She was a strong and loving mom, grandma, great grandma and sister. Each role she played was to the very best of her ability and with love as her heart was as big as the moon. The highlights in her life were time spent with her children, her grand and great grandchildren, and her brothers and sisters. She enjoyed some gardening and working with her indoor plants. She resided with her son Brian and his wife and the kids when she could no longer work-being cared for by them. It was there she became a Green Bay Packers Fan! She initiated a lot of stink to all Chicago Bear fans after that.

She is survived by her 3 children; Brad, Denise and Deanna Williams, daughter-in-law Christine Williams, 5 grandchildren; Ashlee and Brandon Williams, Skylar Williams, Tina (Duane) Reed and Jacob Snook. 3 great grandchildren; Jace, Bailey and Alex Reed, many nieces and nephews. 2 sisters, Donna (Duane) Kupersmith and Rita (Ron) Magee; 2 brothers: Keith (Alice) Evans and Stan (Kris) Evans and 4 partners in crime; Gregg G., Nancy L., Charlie D. and Connie M., the residents and staff of Walnut Acres. They were a big part of her care and healing.

She was preceded in death by parents, son Brian and Sister Shirley Kunz. The loss of her son so suddenly in May 2018 was a very emotional time for her. Yet she never gave up, as she knew she would be joining him some day.

A celebration of life was held on Aug. 10, at the Zion Church in Pearl City, IL, 10082 W Sabin Church Road, Pearl City, IL. In lieu of flowers a memorial has been set up. Cards may be mailed to Denise and Deanna Williams 118 E. Roosevelt, Freeport, IL 61032. Thank you to Pastor Wayne Fischer for making this happen and supporting Audrey and her family. Our hearts weigh heavy today without her but her spirit will go on forever. She has given us strength though all of her pain and has motivated each and every one of us in her own way implying "Never to give up". Heaven is about to receive a precious gift.

Condolences may be sent to the family at www.leamonfh.com.

Christ Lutheran Church of Stockton welcomes Pastor Paul Gebo

The people of Christ Lutheran Church joyously invite you to the official installation of Rev. Paul Gebo as their pastor. The service begins at 4 p.m. on Sunday, Aug. 18, with a free community meal to follow in our Fellowship Hall. Local dignitaries and clergy will be attending, as well as clergy from the Northern Illinois Synod of the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America (www.nisynod.org). Pastor Denver Bitner, assistant to Bishop Jeffrey Clements, will preside.

Pastor Paul does not look like your typical pastor. Sporting a full sleeve tattoo on his left arm (and a half sleeve on his right) and often preaching in bare feet (in the spirit of Moses before the burning bush (Exodus 3:5)), he is nonetheless a very pious man with deep love for Christ and a solid theology. He graduated from Wartburg Theological Seminary in May of this year, at the age of 57. His life in ministry is not so much a "second career," as it is the culmination of a lifelong journey with God. He is a singer and songwriter (with an acoustic guitar adorned by cherubs!), and he has spent many years in the mountains of southwestern Colorado. Born and raised in Arlington Heights, Illinois, he is excited to be back home here in the Midwest. Pastor Paul and the whole Christ Lutheran community welcome you and look forward to meeting you.

'Widows Walk: How My World Ended and What Happened After' book published

Jester Studios, Tomahawk, Wisconsin, in conjunction with Amazon Direct Publishing, are pleased to announce the publication of 'Widows Walk: How My World Ended And What Happened After' by Paula Baysinger Morhardt, of Stockton, Illinois. Paula, who has been writing since she was a small child, has had several poems published in small magazines and e-zines, including a poem published in the anthology Through Sun and Shower by The National Library of Poetry. This is the first book she has published. 'Widow's Walk' is about the sudden death of her husband, how she learned to cope with her world ending, and how she started to pick up the pieces afterwards. Many of Paula's poems, written during her darkest days, are included in the book, and there is a section in the back which contains only the poems from

FHN offers school physicals

To help make sure all Freeport Dist. 145 students are ready for school, FHN will offer school physicals and the Stephenson County Health Department will offer vaccinations at the upcoming Community Day at Mount Calvary Church of God in Christ in Freeport.

Freeport Dist. 145 has a new First Day Exclusion policy this year – all students must have the proper vaccinations and physicals prior to the first day of school, or they will not be allowed to attend.

FHN will offer school physicals from 10:30 a.m. – 12:30 p.m.; parents can sign an authorization form the day of the event or send along a completed form (available from Mt. Calvary).

The Stephenson County Health Department will offer the necessary vaccinations (authorization forms available from Mt. Calvary) from 10:30 a.m. – 12:30 p.m. There is a $20 administration fee for each vaccination for those who do not qualify/are not enrolled in Medicaid.

The free Community Day event will run from 10 a.m. – 2 p.m. Saturday, Aug. 17 at Mount Calvary Church of God in Christ, 420 Challenge Street in Freeport. There will be information and activities for the whole family, including a prayer tent, pampering for single moms and dads, games and crafts for the kids, a free lunch served at noon, and prizes and music. Limited school supplies will be given away and there will be a clothing giveaway for babies and children.

All students who attend Community Day can register to win an autographed poster and flyer of Rockford native Fred VanVleet of the NBA Champion Toronto Raptors and other Raptors merchandise.

Other participants in the event include:

the book as well as a section with some thoughts one year later, concerning what she has learned during the first year. All proceeds from the sale of Widow's Walk, once all associated costs have been paid, will be donated to the Stockton Music Boosters. Paula says "My husband loved talking about his time in Chorus and Madrigals when he was in High School, and he always thought it was very important to keep music in the grade school. The boys and I hope that in some small way, this will help to do that. It will not be a huge amount, this will not be a best seller, but I know every bit helps. Thank you to our wonderful music teachers at Stockton Schools!" Paula welcomes readers who wish to have their book signed. You can contact her on Facebook or email her at 'Paula3MamaCat@gmail.com'. ## Crop Research Field Day in Freeport

Highland Community College Agriculture in partnership with University of Illinois Extension will be hosting a Crop Research Field Day on Wednesday, Sept. 4, 2019 at Highland Agriculture's research plot located at 3472 W. Loras Drive in Freeport, IL. The free event will begin at 9 a.m. and conclude 11 a.m. The public is invited to attend to learn about the research taking place at Highland as well as hear from Extension specialist throughout the state regarding 2019 crop production issues. A light breakfast is included.

The research plot is in its second year of production at Highland Community College through generous sponsorships from Hinrichs' Family Farms, Stephenson Service Company, Ogle County Farm Bureau, Stephenson County Farm Bureau, and Forrester State Bank. The 15 acre plot serves as a land lab where students gain hands on experience with crop production and research design. Topics of research this year include tar spot fungicide trials, fungicide timing trials, effect of cover crops on corn performance, nitrogen rate trials, corn population trials, an industrial hemp variety demonstration, and a cover crop species demonstration. The college intends to share the progress of this research at this event and plans to report the final data to the public at the conclusion of the growing season.

University of Illinois Extension educators Phillip Alberti, Russ Higgins, and state specialist Nathan Kleczewski will share their knowledge as part of the demonstration. Phillip Alberti is a commercial agriculture educator and will discuss northwest Illinois production concerns from throughout the growing season. Crop science educator Russ Higgins will identify weed issues and control methods in corn. Nathan Kleczewski is an extension pathologist at University of Illinois and will be speaking about corn diseases and control options.

The field day is free, however participants are asked to register by Friday, Aug. 30. Those interested in attending may register online at <https://go.illinois.edu/HighlandResearch-Demo> or by calling the University of Illinois Extension-Stephenson County at 815-235-4125. For additional questions, contact Phillip Alberti, Crop Science Educator with University of Illinois Extension in the College of Agricultural, Consumer, and Environmental Sciences at palberti@illinois.edu, 815-599-3644 or on Twitter (@NorthernILCrops).

From Lena's Kitchen

The not so skinny cook

I love summer days with no humidity, but I do like an occasional shower so I don't have to get my plants watered. I guess that makes me wanting it all most of the time! Remember in May and June when we wanted the rain to stop? I guess it is human nature to always want something that isn't there (especially when we can't do anything about it!) I got my first home-grown tomato this past week, and boy was it good. So, I should be happy that things are progressing in the produce area. This week features an appetizer, a salad, two main dishes, and some yummy desserts.

If you like cheese, you will like this appetizer. I like the fact that you can use it on crackers, and it tastes just as good on fresh vegetables. The pepperoni gives it just a little zip. This would be great as a summer appetizer and a winter one too.

Hot Cheese Dip

2 C. shredded mozzarella cheese

2 C. shredded cheddar cheese
2 C. mayonnaise
1 medium onion, minced
1 can (4.5 oz) chopped green chilies, drained
½ C. sliced ripe olives
1½ oz. sliced pepperoni
Cracker and fresh vegetables

Preheat oven to 325. In a bowl, combine the first five ingredients; spread into a greased shallow pie plate. Top with olives and pepperoni. Bake until bubbly, about 25 minutes. Serve with crackers and fresh vegetables/

I like coleslaw as a salad; sometimes I get tired of lettuce salad, so a good cabbage salad helps things not get so boring. This slaw has a great poppy seed dressing. You can buy bottled dressing, or use the dressing recipe that follows. So change up your salads with this interesting poppy seed dish.

Coleslaw with Poppy Seed Dressing

4½ C. shredded cabbage (½ of a head)
4½ C. shredded carrots (6 large)
1 C. green onions, chopped
1 C. poppy seed salad dressing
¼ C. sunflower seeds
Poppy Seed Salad Dressing
1/3 C. sugar
½ C. white wine vinegar
1 t. salt
2 t. dry mustard
1 t. grated onion
1 C. oil

1 T. poppy seeds

In a blender or food processor, combine sugar, vinegar, salt, mustard and onion and process for 20 seconds. With the blender on high, gradually add oil in a slow steady stream. Remove from blender and stir in poppy seeds.

In a large bowl, combine cabbage, carrots and onions. Toss with poppy seed dressing. Refrigerate covered at least an hour. Right before serving sprinkle with sunflower seeds.

Are you looking for something to do with spaghetti that doesn't include meat sauce? This interesting main dish uses chicken with a mushroom sauce to change a rather boring dish of spaghetti. You can cook the chicken yourself, or you can do what I do and buy a rotisserie chicken. I like pasta dishes that I can cook in the oven because I don't like standing over a stove. Enjoy this different take on spaghetti.

Chicken Spaghetti

3 C. cooked chicken, shredded
1 lb. thing spaghetti, broken into 2-inch pieces
2 cans chicken broth
1 jar (4 oz.) diced pimentos, drained
1 small onion
½ C. finely diced green pepper
2 cans cream of mushroom soup
2½ C. grated cheddar cheese
1 t. Lawry's seasoned salt
1/8 t. cayenne pepper
Preheat the oven to 350. Cook the spaghetti in water that has one bouillon cube added. Drain spaghetti and place in a large bowl. Add the cream of mushroom soup, 2 C. cheddar cheese, onion, green pepper, and pimentos. Add the seasoned salt and cayenne pepper. Add the chicken and the 2 cans of broth. Stir together well and pour the mixture into a large baking pan that has been sprayed with cooking spray. Top with the remaining ½ C. cheddar cheese. Bake for 35 to 45 minutes until bubbly

If you want something fast for a dinner dish, this skillet recipe will fill the bill. Again, you can use the rotisserie chicken instead of chicken breasts (I like dark meat, so I like to do the quick method). If it is hot, this recipe is a good one to make.

Creamy Chicken and Broccoli Rice Skillet

2 T. oil
1 C. chopped onions
2½ C. chicken breasts cut into bite-size pieces
1 t. pepper
1 t. garlic powder
1 C. instant white rice, uncooked
½ C. chive and onion cream cheese spread
1½ C. shredded sharp cheddar cheese, divided
1 can chicken broth
3 C. fresh broccoli, cut up Heat oil in a large nonstick skillet on medium-high heat. Add onions; cook and stir 4 to 5 minutes or until crisp tender. Add chicken, pepper and garlic powder; cook 4 to 5 minutes until evenly browned, stirring frequently. (If you are using cooked chicken, you can add the chicken and seasonings without browning.) Add rice, cream cheese spread and ½ cup shredded cheese; mix well. Gradually stir in chicken broth. Bring to a boil stirring constantly. Stir in broccoli, cover. Cook on medium-low heat 10 to 12 minutes or until broccoli is crisp-tender and chicken is done. Top with remaining shredded cheese; cook covered 2 to 3 minutes or until cheese is melted.

This week the Farm Bureau peaches arrived. The next two recipes involve doing something different with them. I like the slow cooker one because it is easy. The cake one makes peaches part of something that is not common. If you want to venture away from pie or cobbler, these two recipes would be great for you to try. Once again the most time consuming part of the recipe is peeling the peaches.

Slow Cooker Peach Crumble

1 T. butter, softened
6 large ripe peaches, peeled and sliced (about 6 cups)
2 T. brown sugar
1 T. lemon juice
1 T. vanilla

Topping:
1 C. flour
¾ C. packed brown sugar
1½ t. baking powder
1 t. cinnamon
½ t. baking soda
1/8 t. salt
1 C. old fashioned oats
6 T. cold butter, cubed

Grease a 6 quart oval slow cooker with 1 T. softened butter. Toss peaches with brown sugar, lemon juice, and vanilla; spread evenly in slow cooker.

Topping: whisk together the flour, brown sugar, baking powder, cinnamon, baking soda, and salt; stir in oats. Cut in butter until crumbly; sprinkle over peaches. Cook, covered, on low until peaches are tender, about 3 to 4 hours.

Hint: In this next recipe, an optional topping is salted caramel sauce. Smuckers makes a great salted caramel sauce. You can also use a dollop of Cool Whip on the cake.

Easy Peach Cake

7 fresh peaches, pitted and peeled and sliced

1 can (12 oz.) evaporated milk

3 eggs

1 C. sugar

3 t. cinnamon

1 white cake mix

1 C. sliced almonds or chopped

pecans

Salted Caramel Sauce (optional)

Preheat oven to 350. Grease or spray a 9 x 13 baking dish. In a large bowl, mix peaches, evaporated milk, eggs, sugar, and cinnamon until well blended. Spread peach mixture in prepared baking dish. Mixture will be very wet. Sprinkle dry cake mix evenly on top of the batter. If adding nuts, sprinkle evenly over the dry cake mix. Bake 50 minutes. Let cool. Top with salted caramel sauce if desired.

I mentioned last week that the Fire Department was going to have a celebration for their 150th Anniversary. If you had a chance to be a part of any of their festivities, you were in for a real treat. The parade showed all of our tax dollars at work along with the fire departments of our surrounding communities. We are fortunate that we all are kept safe by these fine people. I heard from many people that the dedication was very nice and the lunch they served was great. The fireworks were some of the best I have seen, and the weather was perfect for them. Thank you Lena Volunteer Fire Department for giving our community such a neat celebration. I mentioned earlier that I had my first home grown tomato; I am looking forward to many more of them. I had the last of the green beans, and

I am hoping there were some late plantings. I did make my peach pie, and it was delicious. I love the produce from the garden and the fruits that are ripening. I know that many of you are enjoying sweet corn too. Remember to support our local Farmer's Market. We continue to look for some recipes that feature vegetables from the garden and some peaches, raspberries, and strawberries. If you have any recipes you would like to share, send them our way.

You can contact us in person, by mail at From Lena's Kitchens, Shopper's Guide at 213 S. Center St. or email us at scoopshopper@rvpublishing.com.

SwedishAmerican to hold Annual Special Care Nursery/Nicu Reunion

SwedishAmerican is calling all graduates from its Special Care Nursery (SCN) and new Neonatal Intensive Care Unit (NICU) to join us for a reunion bash on Aug. 24.

SwedishAmerican will hold its annual reunion from 10 a.m. to noon in the Camelot Tower parking lot on SwedishAmerican's campus at 1415 E. State Street, Rockford. This year's event will feature a princess and pirate theme and include graduates from the Level III NICU, which opened in May.

The reunion provides an opportunity for SwedishAmerican SCN and NICU staff to see how far some of the tiniest and sickest patients have come, and families will have a chance to reunite with the nurses and doctors they grew close with during their time at SwedishAmerican.

"Our annual reunion is always very meaningful, and this year it will be extra special with the recent opening of our NICU," said Paula Culvey, SwedishAmerican Nurse Manager for Pediatrics and NICU. "Our staff and providers are thrilled to reunite with the patients and family members who spent time in our unit. They were together during very difficult and stressful times, and it's important to have this celebration to reconnect and recognize how far they've come."

The reunion will provide entertainment and activities for children of all ages including a photo booth, temporary tattoos, face painting, balloon animals, interactive games and more. Every princess and pirate will also receive their own tiara or pirate hat they can decorate.

Refreshments will be provided, and every participant will walk away with a gift and have a chance at winning a Target gift card.

In the event of rain, the party will move inside in the Heart Hospital first-floor conference rooms.

SCN and NICU families are asked to RSVP by Wednesday, Aug. 21 at tinyurl.com/SCNreunion2019.

Timber Lake Playhouse presents 'Man of LaMancha' starring Broadway and concert star, William Michals

Man of LaMancha, the classic Tony award-winning musical is coming to Timber Lake Playhouse as the 5th show of the 2019 Season!

While awaiting a hearing with the Inquisition, Cervantes presents a play as his defense in a mock trial for the prisoners. In it, he plays Alonzo Quiana, a man who has set his own reality aside and become Don Quixote De La Mancha. Assisted by his "squire" Sancho Panza, Quixote attempts to avoid his mortal enemy, the Enchanter, and woo the serving wench and prostitute, Aldonza, who he takes to be the lady Dulcinea.

Man of LaMancha is directed by New York director, Dan Barron with Musical Director Michael McBride. "I am very excited and grateful for my first season with Timber Lake Playhouse," states Barron. "Man of La Mancha is a special show that teaches us what the world can be and to follow your 'impossible dream'."

Man of LaMancha stars Broadway veteran, William Michals as Don Quixote (South Pacific, Beauty and the Beast), Christina Pecce as Aldonza (Lyric Opera of Chicago, Fort Worth Opera), Chicago actor, Aaron Choi as Sancho (Marriot Theater) and the TLP Resident Acting Company.

Michals will be in concert on the Timber Lake Main Stage for a concert event on Saturday, Aug. 17 at 4 p.m. The concert will consist of Michals singing from the American Songbook, as well as classic songs from some of the most recognizable musicals of the last 50 years! He will be accompanied by TLP's Music Director, Michael McBride and a three piece band. The concert runs approximately 90 minutes. Tickets for the concert are $15 for TLP subscribers and $20 for the general public. They can be purchased at the TLP box office in person or by calling 815-244-2035.

Man of LaMancha opens Thursday August 8th and runs through August 18th. For more information or to purchase tickets, visit the TLP website at www.timberlakeplayhouse.org or call the Box Office at 815-244-2035. Box Office hours are Monday through Friday from 10 - 3 and until intermission on show days.

610 Music Festival coming to Stephenson County

The inaugural 610 Music Festival will take place Aug. 30 through Sept. 1, at the Stephenson County Fairgrounds. The event will feature a rapidly growing sub-genre of country music called Texas Country or Red Dirt. The event is named after the first three numbers in the zip code of the region.

Over the three day music festival, 18 artists will perform including William Clark Green, Sundance Head, Mike McClure, Hannah Aldridge, Sara Morgan, Alex Williams, and many more. Sunday, September 1st will feature a full day of female Americana singer/songwriters.

The event was created by Freeport residents and live music supporters, Danielle Rogers and Michelle Magee with two goals: to have a positive economic impact in Stephenson County and to share this genre of music with as many people as possible. They're hoping to have 500 people in attendance this year with a capacity of 1,000.

Tickets are available online at ticketweb.com. Weekend passes are $49 and onsite camping is available for four people as low as $30. Day passes are also available and parking is free. A list of camping frequently asked questions can be found at <https://610musicfestival.business.site/>.
