In my opinion

Upon reaching 55 years

On September 29, I will be 55. Happy Birthday to me!

That number does not exactly freak me out, but it does have me in awe. In college in the 1980s, I sang along with Prince about partying like it's 1999 while running the numbers in my head, realizing I would be 35 in 1999. That age seemed ancient. And it was so hard to imagine.

35 came along in two blinks. Now here I sit at 55, which is just now past the halfway-point of my life. (I predict I will live to be 108.) I am so grateful for all I have learned so far. I know enough to know that I don't know much and the meaning of life for me is exploration and discovery. That never ends.

Life is not all downhill from

By KELLY SIMMONS Columnist

here. It's only up. I'm halfway up the mountain. The view is spectacular.

One of the blessings of aging is perspective. The grip of comparison lessens. Attitude softens. Compassion expands. I still get frustrated sometimes but I know that everyone truly is trying to do the best they can. I may not always agree with the ways of the world or others, but I don't get my undies in a bundle quite so much.

I know that I cannot convince anyone of anything. I simply live my life to the best of my ability and if I inspire someone along the way, wonderful. I can try to be an example of kindness and love, and still there could be times someone may think I am a complete ass.

One of the life lessons of my 50 plus years is that I cannot control what anyone else thinks, ever.

I do have control over my own thoughts though. The story we tell ourselves is the life that we live. All the years of teaching joy and happiness were really about ingraining the knowledge within me.

My husband is also a September birthday so he is three weeks ahead of me in this milestone. Age does not affect him. He is called Zen Man for a reason. Always calm, always loving, always able to see the big picture.

My honey and I have done "big" trips for our birthdays in past years, like Alaska, Hawaii and France. We've done the zip lining, hang gliding, and skydiving. This year, we are being mellow and local.

One of the most important things in life is to listen to your own heart. Guidance is always provided. You just have to take time to tune in and listen.

As I have gotten older I have placed more boundaries on my time and I continue to do so. I shall only take on commitments that make my heart sing. Time is our most precious commodity and I get to choose how I spend it.

My premise may be that I am walking Planet Earth until age 108, but I have no idea when I will break on through to the other side. A life expectancy calculator just estimated that I will live to age 93. I'll take those odds.

If my number is up tomorrow, I have no regrets. I feel complete.

My hunch is that I have several decades left to adventure with my sweet man. We are excited for the future, even if we have no clue what it holds for us. We have plenty of ideas we want to pursue and I look forward to a year from now to look back and see what has unfolded.

We never really know what's around the bend, but we can choose to enjoy the drive. Happy Birthday to me!

Protect yourself and your family with a flu shot!

Influenza (“flu”) isn’t anything to mess around with – it can be serious or even deadly for elderly people, newborn babies, and people who have certain chronic illnesses.

Help your body fight off the flu this year by getting a flu shot at one of FHN’s flu shot clinics, open to the public at convenient locations across northwest Illinois.

If you are an adult under 65 years of age, you will get a quadrivalent vaccine for $28.

If you’re 65 or over, you will receive a high-dose version of the vaccine ($62). There will be no out-of-pocket expense if you are covered by Medicare Part B (please present Medicare card) or a Medicare HMO accepted by FHN (there’s a list available at each location; covered persons MUST present the Medicare HMO card instead of the Medicare card for the billing process).

All immunizations not covered by Medicare or a Medicare HMO must be paid for by cash or check payable to FHN. The prices shown here are only available at these flu shot clinics; other rates may apply in FHN offices. No other insurance coverage can be accepted at these flu shot clinics, and per government regulations, no Medicaid cards can be accepted at these locations.

Because of federal guidelines to prevent identity theft, everyone must present a photo ID to receive an immunization. For their own safety, children should be immunized at their regular healthcare provider’s office.

You should NOT receive a flu shot at any of these clinics if you:

- Are allergic to eggs or the flu vaccine
- Are ill or have a fever
- Have a depressed immune system

Please contact your healthcare provider or call FHN toll-free at 1-877-6000-FHN (1-877-600-0346) ext. 945 for assistance in finding a provider if you can’t receive a vaccination due to the above restrictions.
