From Mayor Mike,
Darcie And The
Chamberlain Family

In loving memory of Joyce Wills

It has been a month since our Mother left this world and was called home to heaven. She earned her wings decades ago, but no one in our family was prepared to lose her. It happened so unexpectedly and so quickly.

Our Mom was our family's Rock, an Angel on Earth, a real Saint. She was our best friend, role model, the one we admired and respected most. She always knew the right words to say and knew exactly how to help in the way it was needed most. Our mom was a giver, she was smart, wise, strong, courageous and beautiful. She had the warmest heart, loved unconditionally, and gave her whole heart to her family and so many others. Her talents were endless and her smile and laugh lit up a room with joy. She had a special way of making everyone around her be at ease and feel at home.

She was amazing! We love her and miss her so much.

We would love to hear your stories and memories about our mom. Please mail a card or send an email sharing a memory or experience with our mom if you are so inclined. Thank you for your thoughtfulness.
