We believe by faith

I've been thinking about all the psychological hang ups people have these days and it reminded me of a story of a man who was having to get up several times throughout the night because he kept thinking that there was somebody under his bed.

By SCOTT CERNEK
Columnist

Finally, he went to see a psychiatrist about the problem. He told the Doc that he really needed to fix this problem because he was losing way too much sleep each night. The psychiatrist told the man that, yes indeed, he did have a very serious problem, but he thought that they could fix it. However, it was going to take 10 sessions at a $100 each if the man wanted his help.

Well, the man with the sleeping problem told the doc that he would have to think about it and get back to him. A couple weeks later he saw the psychiatrist at the grocery store, and the psychiatrist wondered if he wasn't the man who had come to see him about his sleeping problem. Oh," the man said, "I don't have that problem anymore."

Naturally, the psychiatrist wanted to know how it happened that he wasn't having the problem any longer. "Well," the man said, "I was telling my neighbor about the problem, and he said he could take care of that right away.

"He's a carpenter, you see. So, my neighbor ran home and came back over right away with his saw and sawed off the legs of my bed. Now,

I don't have the problem of thinking there is somebody under my bed anymore.

I finished a funeral the other day in which I mentioned that when Jesus walked this earth just over 2,000 years ago, he literally performed thousands of miracles all throughout the villages where they went to minister.

There was no doubt in His day that He was a miracle worker. He turned water into wine, made the blind to see, the deaf to hear, the lame to walk, fed thousands of people at least two different times when they had gathered together to hear Him teach.

He even raised a few people from the dead. In that day, the people didn't question that He did miracles, they knew He did. The problem was they were looking for one more big miracle and He wasn't delivering on their expectations.

They wanted Jesus to declare Himself the King of the Jews and become a mighty military and political leader that would elevate Israel to a world power. Jesus had a different agenda. He came to show through miracles that He was God and then to bring the gift of salvation to the souls of men, women and children.

Anyway, after the funeral a nice gentleman came up to me and told me that those miracles in the Bible weren't really real. He said that Jesus just fooled the people, and they were so simple minded that they believed them to be miracles. He added that we are much smarter now and we know better today than to believe in miracles.

I told him that I begged to differ. Here's the thing, even Jesus' enemies did not try to pretend that His miracles weren't real. In fact, they were extremely upset with Him because Jesus healed a lame man on the Sabbath, and their law said that no work should be done on that day. It's pretty amazing how blind we can be sometimes to the truth.

In Hebrews 11:6 we read; without faith it is impossible to please God. The Christian life is a life of faith and that's why it is so powerful. God works in our lives through our faith. Jesus put it another way in John 20.

Doubting Thomas, one of His disciples, said that he would only believe that Jesus had risen from the dead if he was to see the nail wounds and put his fingers in them and place his hand in Jesus' side.

Verses 26-29 read; Eight days later the disciples were together again, and this time Thomas was with them. The doors were locked; but suddenly, as before, Jesus was standing among them. "Peace be with you," he said.

Then he said to Thomas, "Put your finger here, and look at my hands. Put your hand into the wound in my side. Don't be faithless any longer. Believe!" "My Lord and my God!" Thomas exclaimed. Then Jesus told him, "You believe because you have seen me. Blessed are those who believe without seeing me."

It is my prayer that many will come to faith in this new year. You don't have to saw the legs off your bed to cope with life. Put your trust in the God who loves you more than you can possibly comprehend. God is calling out to mankind to turn to Him and repent of our sins and be saved.

Until next week, God bless.
