Stockton Heritage Museum to host Historic Route 20 presentation

Stockton Heritage Museum will host Bryan Farr, president and founder of the Seneca Falls, New York based Historic Route 20 Association. Farr will be sharing stories of the history, presidents, natural wonders, quirky roadside attractions and more connected to Highway 20. While it never had a song, a TV show, or a place in pop culture history like Route 66, US Route 20 has stood the test of time. It may play second fiddle to 66, but 20 holds the designation of America's Longest Highway.

Created on same day as its famous cousin, Route 20 has its beginnings in Boston, MA and treks 3,365 miles through twelve states to the Pacific Ocean at Newport, OR. It is a journey through history, evolving from Native American paths that became commerce roads of colonial America, to the trails of emigrants headed west, Route 20 is a story of America.

Historic Route 20 will take place on Sunday, May 5, at 2 p.m. at the Stockton Heritage Museum, 107 West Front Street, Stockton, IL. The event is free and open to all audiences. For more information, please visit www.stocktonheritagemuseum.org, Stockton-Heritage-Museum-309324911534 on Facebook, email info@stocktonheritagemuseum.org, or leave a message at 815-947-2220.

Weekly connection More signs of spring

My first beef calf of the spring was born last week. When I arrived at the field with hay to feed them the other morning, out of the brush jumped a beautiful little baby heifer calf jumping and dancing around like she was a princess. Each day since when I go out to check on them this little girl does a little dance for me. It's amazing how fast she is growing and getting stronger and stronger. I love that about newborn beef calves the way they jump and run around while never getting too far away from their moms. This baby's mom is a black Angus, but since she was bred to a Red Hereford, this little baby is a brownish color with a bright white face. Some beef farmers work hard to keep their breeds pure, but I like to mix them. I learned in my Beef Production class at college that when you mix the beef breeds one gets animals with hybrid vigor which helps them thrive. So right now, I have a mix of Angus, Simmental, and Hereford in my herd. You know what they say, variety is the spice of life. I have some pure black Angus, some pure red Angus, some black with white faces, and some red animals with white faces. I was told by the breeder that Herefords are good to breed to first-calf heifers because they are what one calls a calving-ease sire. Since Herefords have white-faces and red hide, when you breed them to a black Angus cow or heifer one is going to get a brownish calf with a white face. My sheep that lambed this spring have given me a whole variety of colors as well. Some of them really caught me by surprise. Since I have mostly all white Katahdins and only a couple have black faces, I was shocked that some of the lambs were born red and white. I was really shocked when one little baby ram looked like a little Holstein calf. His entire body was black and white mixed together. I had never seen a lamb look so much like a calf. I need to make him my farm mascot. Like the beef calves, these lambs are also very fun to watch out in the pasture. Sometimes it looks like they are playing tag as they chase each other around and jump up into the air on all four legs. When they hit the ground, they dart to the right or left with uncanny speed and agility. I never thought raising a few beef and sheep would provide so much entertainment. A couple years ago when I quit dairy farming, I decided to buy back a handful of beef cows that I had sold to my nephews a couple years earlier. I had been raising a few beef on the side just for butchering, and when my little herd got to be too much, I sold them. When I bought them back, one might say I redeemed them and brought them back to my farm. Redeem means to buy back or to free from captivity by payment of ransom. In the Christian faith, we have just remembered and celebrated our redemption by Jesus during Holy Week. Jesus paid the price for our salvation on the cross and bought us back when we were lost in our sinful state. He paid the ransom in full and there is nothing we can do to earn our salvation. The work on the cross did it all. It's done, Jesus paid it all.

By SCOTT CERNEK
Columnist

Combating the CCP's role in America's fentanyl crisis

By U.S. Rep. Raja Krishnamoorthi
Last week, as Ranking Member of the Select Committee on the Strategic Competition Between the United States and the Chinese Communist Party (CCP), I helped lead a hearing examining the role the CCP has played in the fentanyl crisis that has ripped families and communities apart. Just before the hearing, our committee released a bipartisan report detailing our investigation into how the CCP is not only allowing companies operating within the People's Republic of China (PRC) to continue to supply the world with fentanyl components, but also subsidizing them. It is estimated that 97 percent of illicit fentanyl materials come from the PRC, which contributed to the deaths of 76,000 Americans from fentanyl-laced opioid overdoses in 2022, even as there were zero fentanyl-related deaths in the PRC. Furthermore, our committee's report found that the CCP is using tax incentives to aid companies in producing these dangerous chemicals and doing little to criminally punish those responsible. During my question line, I also revealed that the CCP has been censoring words in Chinese on PRC-based websites related to fentanyl while allowing the dangerous products to be promoted in English.

Around the Northern Hills

As more and more people are becoming greener, the Jo Daviess County Farm Bureau is asking families, school groups, churches, and other organizations to collect pop tabs for the Ronald McDonald House of Iowa City through April 30. In turn the farm bureau will deliver the collected tabs to the Iowa City facility for its fundraising campaign.

The Ronald McDonald House Charities provide a home-away-from-home for families whose children are hospitalized and seriously ill. We think the pull tab collection is a wonderful cause and know that many people from this area doctor at Iowa City.

Please drop off collected tabs in any kind of container to the Jo Daviess County Farm Bureau office Monday through Friday from 8 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. This recycling program is beneficial for everyone involved. It does not interfere with other can recycling programs and recycles a resource that might otherwise go to waste. More importantly, children and their families are being helped during their time of need.

Did you know that if you are a Jo Daviess County Farm Bureau member and a customer of Stephenson Service Company that you may be eligible for FS patronage benefits? Qualified purchases you make from FS gives you the potential to become an owner of the company, thereby giving you a voice in its governance.

Each year, the FS Board of Directors considers the payment of patronage refunds based on each division's sales and profitability and only pays patronage refunds to Farm Bureau members. ## Family Farm signs

It's that time of year that we are all thinking of planting (okay, maybe wishing) and sprucing things up around the farm. Why not add a "This is a Family Farm" sign to your landscape? The signs are 17.5" X 23" and cost $30.

Farm Fun Fact

Farmers and ranchers receive only 15 cents (on average) out of every retail dollar spent on food at home and away from home. The rest goes for costs beyond the farm gate such as wages and materials for production, processing, marketing, transportation and distribution.

House Bill 4753, known as the Homicide Victims' Families' Rights Act, would allow people to petition law enforcement to review murder cases that have been unsolved for at least three years. Officers who worked on the case previously would not be allowed to participate in the review. The bill, sponsored by Rep. Kam Buckner, D-Chicago, passed out of a committee on a 13-2 vote on April 4 and is awaiting action in the House.

"These bills, these actions, these pieces of policies have come directly from you," Buckner told rallygoers Tuesday. "And unfortunately, they've come from the pain that many of you have endured."

Buckner is also the sponsor of House Bill 4754, which would amend the Uniform Crime Reporting Act. The bill would require law enforcement agencies to digitally publish statistics of homicides and nonfatal shootings including if the cases are cleared or closed, if an arrest was made, and if the case was submitted to their local state's attorney's office.

"Without accurate homicide statistics we can't create evidence-based solutions to our county's gun violence problem," Alicia Schemel, a volunteer with Moms Demand Action, said.

The bill cleared committee on a 10-5 vote earlier this month and is awaiting action in the House.

CORRESPONDENT
The Scales Mound-River Ridge Hornets faced off with a couple of tough opponents in the Galena Pirates and the Fulton Steamers last week. The 2024 softball season hasn't been so kind to the Hornets. Although the Hornets have seen an offensive improvement in recent games, they still find themselves winless on the season. That would remain true when the Hornets fell just short against the Pirates and the Steamers.

When the Hornets faced off with the Pirates on April 19, SM-RR held an overall record of just 0-9. Meanwhile, the Pirates were 5-4. Despite their record, there is no shortage of effort when SM-RR hits the field. The Hornets were buzzing early on when they got off to a hot start against Galena.

Laiken Haas helped the Hornets get off to a quick start from the pitcher's circle. In the top of the first, after allowing a leadoff single, Haas earned a pair of groundouts and a strikeout to end the inning. The Hornets built off Haas's momentum in the bottom half. Amie Richmond led the inning off with a single up the middle. After stealing second and advancing to third on a fielder's choice, Richmond scored the game's first run on a passed ball. With two outs, Millie Boden hit a grounder to first. An error by Galena's first baseman allowed Haas to score, putting the Hornets up 2-0.

Galena's players would settle in after the first inning, however. The Pirates went on to score runs in the second, third, and fourth innings, allowing them to take a 3-2 lead. Heading into the bottom of the fifth, the Hornets still trailed by one run. After two quick outs, a couple of defensive miscues by Galena allowed SM-RR to tie the game. An error and a dropped third strike allowed Richmond to score the Hornets' third run.

Galena's offense would explode in the final two innings. In the sixth, the Pirates drove in a trio of runs with a single and a double. In the seventh, Galena combined for six more runs as six separate singles put the Pirates up 12-3. The Hornets were unable to erase that deficit. A pair of late runs from Richmond and Sarah Winter improved the final score, but SM-RR eventually fell 12-5.

Haas pitched five innings, allowing seven hits, five earned runs, and striking out three. Anna Wachter pitched two innings, allowing six hits, four earned runs, and striking out a pair. At the plate, SM-RR combined for just four hits. Richmond finished the day going two for four with three runs scored. Haas was one for two with two runs scored, and Alyssa Wentz went one for two in the game.

The Hornets found themselves in a similar situation when they faced off with Fulton on Saturday, April 20. Despite the cold air, the Hornets got off to a hot start before dwindling in the later innings. SM-RR scored a pair of runs in the first inning as Boden's two-out double drove Evelyn Walters in to score. Once again, the Hornets held an early 2-0 lead.

Fulton would get those two runs back in the bottom half. In the end, the Steamers scored in all six innings of the game. The Hornets couldn't keep pace as they eventually fell by a final score of 12-6. At the plate, Walters had an excellent game, going three for four with two runs scored. Boden led the way, going three for three with one run scored and four RBI. Unfortunately for the Hornets, they had just seven hits as a team, meaning Walters and Boden combined for nearly all their production.

With the loss, SM-RR fell to 0-11 on the season. On April 25, the Hornets are set to play host to the West Carroll Thunder at 4:30 p.m.

Scheuerell captures career win 500 as Lady Broncos compete in 2024 Monroe Tournament

By Trenten Scheidegger
CORRESPONDENT

The Orangeville-Aquin Broncos met up with some tough competition when they traveled to compete in this year's Monroe Softball Tournament. The Broncos played in three games as they took on Freeport, IL, Juda-Albany, WI, and Reedsburg, WI.

The Broncos stumbled out of the gates at this year's tournament. In game one, the Broncos faced off with the Freeport Pazelz, a team that had more than 10 wins coming into the tournament. Although Orangeville-Aquin got off to a good start with two runs in the top of the first, things fell apart in the bottom half.

Freeport brought a trio of runs in thanks to a pair of errors, and that proved crucial in the end. The Broncos went on to combine for eight hits in the game, but they were unable to erase the deficit they faced for most of the game. In the end, the Broncos dropped the opening game by a score of 4-3.

Holland took the loss despite an excellent performance from the circle. In six innings, Holland allowed just one earned run on six hits and five strikeouts. At the plate, Meghan Carlisle went three for three with a pair of doubles. Anicka Kraft was two for three with two runs batted in. Addyson Wheeler went two for three in the loss.

In game two, the Broncos took on the Juda-Albany Panthers. Last year when the Broncos and Panthers faced off, Orangeville-Aquin picked up a 6-5 victory. This year, it was the Panthers who came out on top.

Juda-Albany jumped out to an early 3-0 lead which put the pressure on the Broncos from the start. Every inning matters, but the Panthers scored seven of their eight runs in the first and last innings. Starting and ending the game with such powerful statements helped them beat the Broncos 8-3.

Wheeler took the loss in the circle. In seven innings, Wheeler allowed four earned runs while striking out three. Kraft led the way at the plate going three for three with a triple. Wheeler was also two for three in the loss.

Fortunately for the Broncos, they managed to end the tournament on a high note. Not only did they bounce back for a third-place finish, they also earned career win number 500 for head coach Lon Scheuerell.

The Broncos took on Reedsburg in the third-place game. The matchup quickly turned into an offensive shootout with both teams getting on the board in the first inning. When it was all said and done, both teams combined for 18 runs and 21 hits.

Although it was a game that came down to the wire, it was the Broncos who got off to a red-hot start. Six runs in the bottom of the first helped Orangeville-Aquin erase an early two-run deficit. In their next at bat, the Broncos put up two more runs, giving them an 8-2 lead.

Reedsburg's hits came in spurts. After taking the early 2-0 lead, Reedsburg put up just one run over the next three innings. Then, with their backs against the wall, Reedsburg rallied for five runs in the top of the fifth. That made it a two-run game with the Broncos holding a 10-8 lead.

Holland managed to shut things down when the team needed it. She wound up picking up the win as the Broncos held on for the 10-8 victory. In six innings, Holland allowed five earned runs off ten hits. At the plate, Wheeler continued her hot streak with a three for three performance. Megan Holder went two for four with a double and two runs batted in.

With the win, the Broncos brought home a third-place finish and a monumental moment in their head coach's career. They also improved their overall record to 13-3 on the season.

On Wednesday, April 24 Orangeville-Aquin is scheduled to play host to the Durand Bulldogs at 4:30 p.m.

Early offense helps Lena-Winslow hold off Pearl City

By Trenten Scheidegger
CORRESPONDENT

The Lena-Winslow Panthers and the Pearl City Wolves met up for the first time in this year's 2024 baseball season last week. The Panthers came into the April 17 game riding a six-game winning streak. Over the course of those six games, Le-Win outscored their opponents 76-28. After beating Galena 12-5, the Panthers improved their record to 9-4 before taking on the Wolves.

Pearl City hasn't been so fortunate. Prior to their game with Le-Win, the Wolves held an overall record of just 4-8. More often than not, the Wolves have found themselves on the short end of a few close games. Five of their eight losses came by two runs or less. They suffered their sixth in what turned out to be a thrilling game with the Panthers.

It was Pearl City who took the game's first lead. After advancing to third on a passed ball, Lexton Endress reached home safely on a Kip Martens ground out. In the top of the second, the Wolves tacked on another when Jayden Downs crushed a homerun to left.

Le-Win came to life in the bottom of the second. Maverick Cass was hit by a pitch to lead off the inning. Cohen Weegens then singled through the left side. Landon Grindey then singled to right, allowing Cass to score the Panthers' first run. Shortly after, Weegens scored on a fielder's choice to tie the game. With the bases loaded, Aiden Wild was hit by a pitch, driving in a third run.

The three-run second inning just set the stage for what the Panthers would do in the third. That inning was a tale of two pitchers as the Wolves and Panthers couldn't have had more polar opposite innings. In the top half, Luke Madigan rattled off three consecutive strikeouts to get Le-Win's bats back to the plate. Pearl City's pitcher Brody Voegeli struggled to find the zone. After two quick strikeouts, Voegeli went on to walk three batters and hit a fourth.

The free bases set the Panthers up for a big inning. Miles Mahon drove in Lucas Fye with a single to the left side. Wild crushed a line drive up the middle for a three-run double. By the end of the third, Le-Win held a 9-2 advantage.

Pearl City worked to erase the deficit the rest of the way. In the top of the fourth, Voegeli picked himself up with an RBI single to the left side. In the sixth, Madigan had his own pitching struggles as a trio of walks gave the Wolves another opportunity. Voegeli eventually scored on a passed ball, bringing the Wolves within three.

In the top of the seventh, Will Birchen scored Pearl City's seventh run to make things interesting. That was as close as the Wolves would get as the Panthers shut things down for a 9-7 victory.

Wild led the way at the plate for Le-Win. In three at bats, Wild had two hits, one run scored, and three runs batted in. Madigan was one for two with one run scored, one RBI, and two walks. Mahon was one for four with a run scored and one RBI as well.

Pearl City was led by Martens who went two for four with two runs and one RBI. Downs was one for three with a run scored, two RBI, and a walk. Voegeli was one for four with one run scored and one RBI.

On the mound, Le-Win was led by a masterful performance. Madigan tossed six innings, allowing just four hits and striking out nine. Four defensive errors behind him led to a misleading final line.

The second game between the Panthers and Wolves, which was originally scheduled for last week, was moved to May 3 due to weather conditions.

The not so skinny cook

Those April showers have really made lawns grow and trees to push those leaves out. We are definitely into spring cooking. Enjoy making these spring dishes this week.

Fresh Herb Vegetable Dip

This spring appetizer is a great way to get your fresh vegetables in a way that makes eating them a little more exciting. It is easy to make because all the work for the dip is in the food processor. The real work is cutting all the veggies up.

  - 2 T. lemon juice
  - 1 1/2 C. sour cream
  - 2 medium ripe avocados peeled and quartered and cubed
  - 2 T. chopped chives

  - 2 T. chopped fresh basil
  - 1 T. chopped fresh tarragon
  - 1 T. chopped fresh thyme
  - 1 garlic clove, halved
  - 1/2 t. salt
  - 1/4 t. pepper
  - Fresh vegetables
- Place first 12 ingredients in a food processor; process until smooth. Refrigerate until serving. Serve with vegetables.

Broccoli Slaw

This salad is a crunchy version of broccoli salad. Enjoy this great side for any meal.

- Salad ingredients:
- 4 C. broccoli florets
  - 2 C. shredded red cabbage
  - 1 small sweet onion, finely chopped
  - 1 medium carrot, shredded

Philly Cheesesteak Sliders

Sliders come in all forms of meat: ham, chicken, and roast beef. This slider is a take on the famous Philly Cheesesteak sandwich. Enjoy yet another slider recipe that will feed a group.

- 2 large green peppers, sliced
- 1 large sweet onion, sliced
- 1 T. olive oil
- 2 pkg. Hawaiian sweet rolls (12 oz. each)
- 1 1/2 lbs. sliced deli roast beef
- 12 slices provolone cheese
- 3/4 C. butter
- 1 1/2 t. dried minced onion
- 1 1/2 t. Worcestershire sauce
- 1 t. garlic powder

Preheat oven to 350. In a large skillet, cook green pepper and onion in oil over medium-high heat until tender, 8 to 10 minutes. Without separating rolls, cut each package in half horizontally; arrange bottom halves in a greased 9 x 13 baking pan. Layer with roast beef, pepper mixture and cheese; replace top halves of rolls.

In a small saucepan, melt butter; add dried onion, Worcestershire sauce, and garlic powder. Pour over rolls. Cover and refrigerate 8 hours or overnight. Remove rolls from refrigerator 30 minutes before baking. Bake rolls, uncovered, 15 minutes. Cover with foil; bake until cheese is melted, 10 minutes longer.

Ham and Potato Casserole

If you still have some of that Easter ham in the freezer, this recipe is a great way to serve it for a hearty dinner. It has just the right amount of vegetables to add great crunch and taste.

- 2 C. cubed peeled potatoes
- 1 large carrot, sliced
- 2 celery ribs, chopped
- 3 C. water

- 1 1/2 C. 2 % milk
- 3/4 t. salt
- 1/8 t. pepper
- 1 C. shredded cheddar cheese

Preheat oven to 375. In a saucepan, bring the potatoes, carrot, celery, and water to a boil. Reduce heat; cover and cook until tender, about 15 minutes. Drain. In a skillet, sauté ham, green pepper, and onion in 3 T. butter until tender. Add potato mixture. Transfer to a greased 1 1/2 qt. baking dish.

In a large saucepan, melt the remaining 4 T. butter; stir in flour until smooth. Gradually whisk in the milk, salt, and pepper. Bring to a boil; cook and stir for 2 minutes or until thickened. Reduce heat; add cheddar cheese and stir until melted. Pour over ham mixture. Sprinkle with breadcrumbs. Bake until heated through, 25 to 30 minutes.

Strawberry Rhubarb Dump Cake

This dessert uses a spice cake instead of a white or yellow cake. It is easy and makes a great use of all that rhubarb that is starting to get ready to harvest.

- 4 C. chopped fresh or frozen rhubarb
- 4 C. quartered fresh strawberries
- 1/4 C. orange juice
- 1 T. sugar
- 1 t. cinnamon
- 1/4 t. ground nutmeg
- 1/4 t. ground cardamom
- 3/4 C. butter, melted and divided
- 1 pkg. spice cake mix
- whipped cream

Preheat oven to 350. In a large bowl combine rhubarb, strawberries, orange juice, sugar, cinnamon, nutmeg, and cardamom. Transfer to a greased 9 x 13 baking dish. Drizzle with 3 T. butter; sprinkle with cake mix. Top with remaining butter. Bake until golden brown and bubbly, 45 to 55 minutes. Serve warm and top with whipped cream.

Rhubarb-Blueberry Crumble

The usual combination is for rhubarb and strawberry baked "somethings." This recipe combines rhubarb and blueberries. Enjoy this unique fruit combination for a different dessert.

- 2/3 C. sugar
  - 2 T. cornstarch
  - 1/4 t. salt
  - 3 C. fresh blueberries
  - 3 C. sliced fresh or frozen rhubarb, thawed
- Topping:
- 3/4 C. bisquick
  - 1/3 C. sugar
  - 1/8 t. salt
  - 1/3 C. cold unsalted butter, cubed

Warhawks sweep West Carroll in softball doubleheader

By Trenten Scheidegger
CORRESPONDENT

The Warren-Stockton Warhawks picked up a couple of key victories when they faced off with the West Carroll Thunder in a doubleheader last week. The wins couldn't have come at a better time for the Warhawks. Prior to the doubleheader, the Warhawks suffered a four-game losing streak. Oddly enough, their last victory came against West Carroll back on April 6.

After the losing streak, the Warhawks saw their overall record drop to 3-8. They drew two games closer to .500 when they swept West Carroll on April 19.

In game one, the Warhawks had no shortage of offense. Their bats went to work quickly, putting up a pair of runs in the bottom of the first inning. In total, the Warhawks combined for 17 hits while scoring in each inning they came to bat in. It was Raiyn Daughin's single through the left side that drove in Addy Bohnsack, giving the Warhawks a 2-0 advantage. In the second, Lauren Williams doubled to left, driving in Payton Goswick for their third run. Before the inning was over, Williams scored on a wild pitch, putting the Warhawks up 4-0.

Warren-Stockton's offense continued to pile it on in the third. They needed it after surrendering a trip of runs in the top half. Maddie McKee tripled to left, driving in Ireland Mensendike. Goswick followed up with an even bigger bang as she hit a two-run inside the park homer. By the end of three, the Warhawks held a 9-3 lead.

The Warhawks blew the game wide open in the fourth. A combination of some big hits and a defensive meltdown allowed Warren-Stockton to essentially put things out of reach. After Daughin took a leadoff walk, Mensendike followed up with a double to left. Then McKee hit an RBI single up the middle.

The Warhawks would bat around as Daughin eventually came back to the plate with her team leading 14-4. Daughin then doubled to center, driving in a pair. Mensendike then made it back-to-back doubles, keeping the inning alive. McKee capped the inning off with a hit to right, which allowed Mensendike to score.

In the end, the Warhawks picked up an 18-5 victory in game one. Madalynn Perry pitched an excellent game, striking out seven and allowing one earned run in five innings. Every single Warhawk batter reached base in the game. McKee led the way, going three for four with two runs scored and three RBI. Goswick went two for four with two runs scored and three RBI. Daughin went two for two with three runs, two RBI, and two walks in the victory.

Game two was much of the same, although things did get off to a rocky start. Mensendike was in the pitcher's circle this time around, and West Carroll gave her trouble. Mensendike allowed eight earned runs on four walks and five hits before getting out of the first inning. Warren-Stockton was forced to make a pitching change, bringing Perry back into pitch, while trailing the Thunder 6-5.

Mensendike was sure to pick herself up at the plate. She was nearly perfect in the game, going four for five with two runs scored and four RBI. Only Bohnsack had a better day, going five for six with four runs scored and three RBI. Perry went two for five with a run scored and three RBI. Goswick was three for four with three runs scored, two RBI, and one walk.

Perry also dominated the rest of the game from the circle. After filling in for Mensendike, Perry tossed six and one third innings, striking out 10 while allowing five hits. Perry got the win on the mound as the Warhawks picked up a 22-11 victory.

With the win, the Warhawks improved their record to 5-8 on the year. They are scheduled to travel to take on the Galena Pirates on Thursday, April 25 at 4:30 p.m.

McCombie supporting Rx drop-off in two counties

House Minority Leader Tony McCombie is promoting two events that will provide residents with an opportunity to safely dispose of prescription drugs. The upcoming events will be held on Saturday, April 27 from 9 a.m. to 12 p.m., in line with National Prescription Take Back Day, a movement backed by the federal Drug Enforcement Agency to help prevent medication misuse and opioid addiction. Event locations will be held at Leader McCombie's District Office, 9317B IL Rt 84, Savanna and at the Elizabeth Community Building (Rear Parking Area), 330 N. West Street, Elizabeth.

"This is a great opportunity to clean out your medicine cabinet and know you are safely disposing of any unused or expired medications or prescriptions," said Leader McCombie. "National Prescription Drug Take Back Day is reminder of just how dangerous misuse of medications and opioids can be. We have an opportunity to prevent tragedies through these events and promote safety in our communities."

Drug Take Back Day has been an ongoing effort to address the rising opioid epidemic, which Leader McCombie has taken a leading stand on in the General Assembly by backing a measure to combat fentanyl. While fentanyl has been a rising source of overdoses across the state and nation, her legislation that was signed into law last year would allow pharmacists and retail stores to sell potentially life-saving fentanyl test strips over the counter.

The Prescription Drop-Off events are outdoor drive-thru opportunities—residents will not have to leave their vehicles to drop off their materials. With questions about the upcoming event, contact McCombie's district office at 815-291-8989. Northwest Illinois residents looking for more opportunities for waste and recycling events can visit Jo Daviess County (jodaviesscountyil.gov) to find out more; the Jo-Carroll Solid Waste Agency coordinates special waste and recycling collections, public education, and also issues permits to solid waste haulers operating in Jo Daviess and/or Carroll Counties.

Advanced technology aids dental anthropology research

Anthropology has a long history of using teeth to investigate the evolution and diversity of humans. There are several reasons for this. Tooth enamel is the hardest tissue in the body, being 96% dense inorganic hydroxyapatite, so it lasts longer than any other remains. Tooth size and shape are under strong genetic control. This means that they can reveal important genetic information, particularly when studying population behaviors and evolutionary relationships in our ancestors.

they ingested and other aspects of their lives. We can also learn a great deal about the customs, diets, and the health of different populations by examining alterations in the teeth that are either intentional or caused by disease, environmental stress, or famine. One example of this is linear enamel hypoplasia (LEH), which are bands of deficient enamel formation caused by systemic stress.

Advances in diagnostic technologies and genetic sequencing are now providing insights into areas that archeologists could not formerly address. One example of this is the case of an aristocratic French woman named Anne D'Alegre, whose remains were found buried in the chapel of the Château de Laval back in 1988. Although she had died in 1619, her body had been embalmed and placed in a lead coffin, which meant that her teeth were well preserved. Archaeologists who excavated the body noted that D'Alegre had a false tooth and ligatures (a medical term for a thread or wire used to tie something) on the teeth. They did not understand their purpose until the year 2023, when a researcher examined D'Alegre's jaw with a CBCT (Cone Beam Cat Scan). CBCT technology, which did not exist in 1988, creates a three-dimensional image. The scan revealed that D'Alegre not only suffered from severe periodontal disease, but she had undergone long periods of systemic stress in her lifetime.

Damage from her periodontal disease was so severe it had caused many of her teeth to become loose and the fine gold wires had been placed to keep them from falling out. One of the teeth she lost had been replaced by part of an elephant tusk. While most of the wires were strung near the gum line, some of her teeth had been pierced so that a wire could be run through them to add more stability. Not only would the placing of these wires have been incredibly painful, but the scan revealed that the wires had to be periodically tightened. While she endured that pain, she had no way of knowing that the "solution" was making her surrounding teeth more unstable.

If we want to understand why anyone would choose to live in this much pain, we need to consider this in the context of the time and society in which Anne D'Alegre lived. Anne D'Alegre lived through a troubled time in French history. She was a Protestant, or Huguenot, at the time of the French Wars of Religion between the Protestants and Catholics. On Sept. 1, 1583, Anne D'Alegre married Guy XIX of Laval, Count of Laval. She was only 21 when the count died in 1586. She then became known as the Dowager Countess of Laval, of Montfort, of Harcourt, Baroness of Quintin, and Vitre. As a Protestant, she moved from Harcourt to Sedan so that she could raise her son, Guy XX de Laval, in the Protestant faith. However, in 1588, King

Henri III seized her property, removed her guardianship, and gave it to Charles of Lorraine. Her son converted to Catholicism and died in battle in Hungary at the age of 20. D'Alegre re-married but was widowed again.

There was huge pressure on aristocratic women at a time when appearance was seen as integral to value and rank in society. A pleasing smile was especially important for a socialite who had been widowed twice. Because tooth loss changes the shape of one's face and alters speech, she endured the pain of the stabilizing wires rather than the social embarrassment of being an aristocratic woman with no teeth.

Advances in technology will continue to help us understand and learn from our past. It serves as a reminder that we now have the benefit of the knowledge to prevent periodontal disease and safer, more effective treatments to avoid the pain, structural damage, and loss of teeth that D'Alegre and so many others have suffered.

Freeport Public Library to host clean heat workshop

Join Freeport Public Library on May 2, 2024, to learn more about the clean heat campaign. A discussion will be held on how switching to electric appliances can reduce carbon footprints, lower energy costs, and protect one's health. The Clean and Healthy Buildings Act, an upcoming bill in the Illinois state legislature that would create a plan to reduce building emissions in Illinois, will also be discussed.

Reducing emissions in places of work, play, and daily life is important for and beneficial to the state's climate, as well as the individual health and finances of every Illinoisan. During the workshop participants will have the opportunity to give feedback and ask questions regarding electrification and the Clean and Healthy Buildings Act. The workshop will be held from 6:30 to 7:30 p.m.

Incident (Continued from page 13)

Officers on scene at Pleasant Street and West Avenue discovered evidence that showed a firearm had been discharged in the area. The male victim was initially treated at FHN Hospital and then transported to another hospital for potentially life-threatening injuries. At this time, it is believed this incident was not a random act of violence. The Freeport Police department is investigating the incident and is asking for anyone who has any information to contact either the Freeport Police Department at 815-235-8222, or Stateline Area Crime Stoppers at 866-TIPSNOW or through texting at Tip411.
